How To Dodge New Sales Tax

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvanians complaining about paying the new 3½ per cent sales tax have this advice from House Speaker H. G. Andrews (D-Cambria):

"You can avoid all taxes if you don't smoke, if you don't eat, if you don't buy anything, if you don't go any place, if you don't see anything, if you don't live and if you don't die."

Andrews told the House Wednesday that this was the analysis of the tax bill given him by parliamentarian Edward S. Moore.

In his charge to 16 new members, all senior students, at a banquet following the initiation, Dr. W. Frederick Shaffer, retiring president, said, "Scholarship is a great pleasure, but it is also a duty for you to 'yell' when you see danger approaching our civilization. It is your duty to be on the watchtower. Follow your hearts and your insights in the discernment of danger."

In response, John J. Wenzke, Lock Haven, said, "The good life does not reside in this honor but in the toil which it represents."

Mrs. Catherine Drinker Bowen, biographer and visiting scholar, addressed the gathering on "Work and Reward." "I hope a proportion" (Continued On Page 10)

To Furnish Milk

Chester Hilger, Gettysburg recreation director, outlined the Tot Lot program of the Recreation Board this summer. As a result, the association voted to purchase milk for distribution two days a week to the youngsters in the Tot Lots. The group also considered such distribution a third day a week, but will make final decision on that at the next meeting.

The possibility of a club-sponsored horseshoe pitching league was discussed but no action taken until the delegates to the association report back to their clubs for their opinion.

A change was made in the method of notification of delegates of association meetings. It was voted that in the future the secretary of the association will notify each club secretary of future meetings, and the club secretaries will then notify the delegates from their own clubs.

An effective and thorough clean-up campaign in Gettysburg, and elsewhere, may mean the saving of thousands of dollars in fire loss and perhaps some lives.

In the last five years fire losses in the United States, when measured in dollars, increased 21 per cent, from $870,984,000 in 1954 to $1,056,266,000 in 1958. During that period close to 300,000 homes were struck by fire every year. In addition, an average of 11,000 persons die annually as a result of fires in the United States.

Spring clean-up offers everyone an opportunity to help prevent this tragic loss of life and property. Cleanup every fire hazard you have on your property. It may pay you big dividends.

The three prisoners who escaped Wednesday night were the first to ever escape from the cell block at the Adams County jail in the decade since its construction.

One other prisoner sought to escape by the same skylight but was captured on the roof of the jail.

Two other prisoners have broken out of the jail, one scaling a wall from an exercise yard and one, a trusty, going out a coal chute.

All of the escaped prisoners, with the exception of the one now at large, were recaptured.

Jilted Woman Given 2-21 Years For Manslaughter

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Connie Nicholas, disappointed by her conviction of manslaughter of her wealthy lover, was sentenced today to 2 to 21 years in the Indiana Women's Prison.

Judge Thomas J. Faulconer ordered her taken to the prison here later today. The 45-year-old double divorcee then returned to her lawyers and said:

"I thought we were going to appeal and get bond set."

"We still can," said Joseph Quill, one of her three lawyers.

Mrs. Nicholas, who will be eligible for parole in 21 months, said she was "very disappointed" by the manslaughter conviction.

"I had hoped for acquittal all along," she told newsmen.

Has No Comment

Defense lawyers said any appeal of the sentence would have to be initiated by Mrs. Nicholas.

The jury reached its verdict at 1:50 a.m., and the defendant, summoned after her jail cell, heard it half an hour later.

The tiny prisoner—5 feet 1 and weighing 106 pounds—declined to discuss the verdict.

This was a complete about-face from her demeanor during the trial, which started exactly a month ago today. Then she talked freely and at one time was admonished by her attorneys to keep quiet.

Even while the jury deliberated Wednesday night, Mrs. Nicholas told reporters she still loved her 54-year-old playboy paramour, Forrest Teel, a drug firm executive.

The jury debated approximately nine hours, with an hour and a half out for dinner, before agreeing on a verdict. Russell Cole, jury foreman, said, "There were more than 10 ballots before we reached the verdict."

He added that at first there were votes ranging from acquittal to first-degree murder, but at no time did any of the jurors mention sending the pert Mrs. Nicholas to the electric chair.

The prosecution, which did not ask the death penalty in its summation, termed the manslaughter verdict "fair and just."

Two Fugitives Who Escaped From County Jail Captured; Baltimore Negro Still Free

Police this afternoon intensified their hunt for Carlin Brown, 22-year-old Baltimore negro, only one of three prisoners who escaped from the Adams County jail Wednesday evening still at large.

Sheriff Dawson Miller termed Brown the "ring-leader" in the flight from the jail which occurred about 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night.

The three men, Brown; James Howard Champlain, 19, Gettysburg R. 3, and Elwood L. Macklin Jr., Topeka, Kansas, escaped by "kicking out" a skylight to gain access to the roof of the jail and then dropped 20 feet to the ground outside the jail.

Brown Eludes Pursuit

Macklin was captured at Greencastle at 2:30 this morning by Greencastle police when the officers spotted Macklin and Brown walking along a street. Brown eluded the officers.

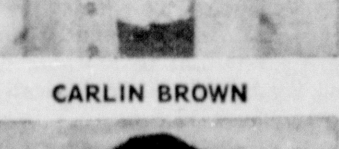

Champlain was taken into custody at 8:45 o'clock this morning by Sheriff Miller and Deputy James Warren at his home along the Mummaburg Rd.

TO JOIN NETWORK

Abbottstown borough council Wednesday night agreed to buy the necessary equipment so that the Abbottstown Fire Co. can join in the county-wide fire-CD radio monitor network being set up. Net cost to the borough will be about $138. A like amount will be available from federal CD funds.

Puzzled Over Champlain

His mother looked into the young man's room this morning and finding him there asleep, telephoned the sheriff. Miller and his deputy were there when Champlain awakened.

The sheriff was at a loss to explain why Chamberlain chose to join in the escape. On parole from a juvenile violation, the youth had been picked up by officials Wednesday to be held for state parole officers who were due to arrive here about 2 o'clock this afternoon. His arrest on "parole violation" had been only because he had quit a job to which he had been assigned and his confinement was a means of making sure that he would be present when parole officers arrived. It was expected that he would probably have been released this afternoon after a warning that he must remain "on the job."

Stole Car Here

Brown and Macklin came into Gettysburg after their escape and stole a car owned by Clarence R. Thompson, 25 S. Franklin St. Thompson's 1955 Ford two-door, green sedan with white panel had been parked "in back of the Ice and Storage" off N. Washington St. at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. Its loss was discovered at 9:30 p.m.

State policeman Robert Brady said Macklin and Brown drove to Baltimore in Thompson's car. Brown is a resident of Baltimore.

ASKS EDITORS TO HELP MOLD U. S. POLICY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's editors were urged today to help mold a nonpartisan foreign policy aimed at protecting 20th century revolutions from "the Communist scavengers."

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, made the appeal in an address to the American Society of Newspaper Editors on the first day of its annual meeting here.

Fulbright told the editors this country's interests require that it do what it can "to protect the 20th century revolution in non-Communist Asia, in Africa, and in Latin America from the Communist scavengers. Our interests require that this revolution be given a chance to develop along constructive lines."

Revised Sense Of Value
To match Communist states which can fix and execute policy by simple decree, Fulbright said, millions of Americans will have to reach "some national decisions as to priorities" — to sacrifice some luxuries for long-range growth, to export more capital and import more goods.

"We might even bring ourselves to put less steel into automobiles and more into school construction," he said.

"Until we revise our sense of values, we will never think we can afford to do the things which, in my judgment, we must do if we are to survive as a nation of free people."

"The gravest crisis confronting the western world today is not in Berlin; it is within ourselves."

The nearly 400 editors attending the three-day meeting will hear an address Friday by Fidel Castro, youthful prime minister of Cuba's revolutionary government.

RED CHINESE OPEN CONGRESS

TOKYO (AP) — Deputies from all Red China are gathering in Peking for the opening Friday of the National People's Congress, the country's only semblance of a parliament.

The 1,071 delegates were buoyed by glowing reports that 1958 saw a great upsurge in the national economy.

Giving his valedictory as chairman — or president — of the Red republic, Communist party chief Mao Tse-tung may disclose details of his plan to propel China's hard-pressed millions still another notch forward toward industrialization.

Mao also is expected to review the rebellion in Tibet which has seriously damaged China's prestige in Asia. Among the delegates in the Panchen Lama, installed by the Reds as their Tibetan puppet after the Dalai Lama fled to India.

The Congress also will approve the Communist leadership's choice of a successor to Mao in the figurehead chairmanship. He announced his retirement from that post in December but retained the country's most powerful post, head of the party.

BULLETINS

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Four gunmen — three of them fugitives from the firing squads of the Cuban revolutionary government — captured a Cuban airliner in flight today and forced the pilot at gunpoint to fly to Miami.

Seventeen startled but unharmed American and Cuban passengers were aboard the 4-engine airliner when it landed. U.S. border patrolmen immediately surrounded the plane and took the four hijackers into custody.

Three gunmen said they were members of the hated secret police force of the fallen Cuban dictator, Fulgencio Batista. The other was a former Batista air force mechanic.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — About 35,000 persons were homeless today in one of the worst floods in Argentina's history along the Uruguay and Plata rivers.

Hardest hit was Concordia, a city of 80,000 population 220 miles north of Buenos Aires. The waters of the Uruguay covered most of the stricken city, reports from the scene said. About 25,000 persons were driven from their homes there. The government is assembling naval ships to bring out the entire population if the waters rise higher.

CUBANS GIVE FIDEL CASTRO LOUD WELCOME

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
WASHINGTON (AP) — Fidel Castro, welcomed with a noisy reception he said he found delightful, begins a two-week tour today to "promote Cuba" among Americans and Canadians.

The bearded Cuban prime minister was greeted with cries of "Viva Castro" — Long live Castro — from a crowd of flag-waving Cuban supporters when he arrived Wednesday night by plane.

Wearing a familiar combat uniform, the smiling revolutionary leader told the airport crowd, "I hope in some way I can bring a better understanding of our program in Cuba to the people of the United States and that they will have a better understanding of our situation."

"Everyone Is Nice"
Then, ignoring his waiting limousine, he headed for a wire fence behind which most of the spectators had been kept waiting. There he hugged many of his admirers, shook their hands and patted them on the head.

"Everyone is very nice," he said on his arrival at the Cuban Embassy. "The American people are very nice. The Cubans are very nice. Even the reporters are very nice," he added with a laugh. Indications were strong that the economic phase of his "Sell Cuba" campaign—as he has labeled it in frequent speeches in Havana—would get top priority on his tour. Accompanying the prime minister were some of the leading economic figures of the provisional government.

Castro is expected to launch his Cuban promotional effort Friday when he addresses the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

NEW PROTEST FILED BY REDS OVER FLIGHTS

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD
BONN, Germany (AP) — The Soviet Union has protested against the high-altitude flight to Berlin Wednesday by an American Air Force cargo plane, an informed Allied source reported.

The source said the Soviet representative at the four-power air safety center in Berlin made the protest verbally. This group controls flights between Berlin and the West.

The C130 turboprop flew into and out of Berlin at between 20,000 and 25,000 feet. It was the third American trip to Berlin in nearly three weeks at altitudes above the 10,000-foot level the Soviets contend is the maximum for Allied planes. The Western Allies maintain that they can fly at any level in the corridors to Berlin.

Reds Shadow Plane
U.S. officials said Wednesday that two Soviet jet fighters shadowed the latest American plane closely but did not buzz it as Soviet MIGs did two previous flights. But today, American sources said later information from Berlin showed "dangerous harassment, or buzzing as it is popularly called, did occur."

As British papers accused the U.S. Air force of endangering the prospects of East-West negotiations by the flights, a British Embassy spokesman in Bonn said the British had been informed beforehand of the flight but were not "consulted."

Two Fugitives

They then drove to Frederick and took Route 40, planning to "head west."

When they reached Hagerstown Macklin decided he wished to go to Massachusetts where his father resides. The men turned the car north.

Abandoned "Hot" Car
At Greencastle they decided to abandon the Thompson car and find another means of conveyance, believing that the description of the Thompson car would be that time have been known by police generally.

Brady said the two men were walking along a street in Greencastle when they were spotted by Greencastle police, who had been notified, along with all other officers in several states, of the escape by the prisoners.

The officers gave chase and caught Macklin. Brown, a faster runner, made his escape in the chase around alleys and houses in the town.

Push Search There
Police immediately intensified their search in the Greencastle area.

Macklin was brought back to the Adams County jail where he was being questioned, along with Champlain, by police officers today.

Sheriff Miller brought jail break charges against the trio before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

Sentenced On Tuesday
Macklin was sentenced by the Adams County court Tuesday to 60 days in jail on a charge of larceny of a coin box from a soft drink dispensing machine at the Lamont Kane station on the Lincoln Highway west of here. He also faced a detainer from Bedford on a charge of stealing a car. Tuesday he told the court he had hitch hiked as far as Bedford from Topeka and then "got tired of hitchhiking and stole the car." Macklin was arrested by state police when he pulled into a service station parking lot near town shortly after securing the coins from the coin box of the vending machine at Kane's.

Brown was awaiting appearance in May term of court on charges of burglary and burglary and larceny in connection with the entering of homes of former sheriff Dorsey Shultz, Mares Sherman and Robert Steinberger.

Was Wearing Bandage
Brown had entered a plea of guilty to a larceny charge involving the theft of a dress and slip valued at $25 which had come through the mail and had been placed by a postman outside the door of the apartment of Mrs. Theodore Schmitz, Carlisle St. Brown had been seen with the package and it was found in his possession. An antique pistol stolen from Sheriff Shultz's home was found in Brown's locker here, but he held at the hearing that the revolver had been given into his possession by another man who had been a fellow guest with him at the "hobo haven" at the county home.

Brown was hurt last week at the jail when he was cut by a razor blade wielded by Charles L. Steward, 24, Arendtsville, during an argument over a Monopoly game. His assailant was sentenced Monday by the county court to from 11 to 23 months in the Allegheny County Workhouse. Brown, cut on the neck and head, was wearing a bandage on his head when he escaped Wednesday night.

Believed "Escape" Proof
In escaping from the skylight the three prisoners performed a feat which had been believed impossible. After breaking through the heavy wide mesh and the thick

On the two "ends" the bars fit down against a heavy metal flashing. The escaping prisoners were able to break and bend the flashing to permit a small "hole" through which the escape was made.

The metal bar enclosure had been placed after an insane man had broken out the skylight a number of years ago and it was believed impossible for anyone to escape from the iron bar and steel flashing arrangement.

News Briefs

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The Damascus Daily Al Wahda says an Iraqi army patrol recently crossed the frontier of the Persian Gulf sheikdom of Kuwait and arrested a group of West German engineers and Kuwait officials.

Al Wahda's correspondent in the oil-rich sheikdom reported that the West Germans and Kuwaitis were returned after the Kuwait government made a strong protest to Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassam's government. The Germans and Kuwaitis reportedly were working on a highway.

ROME (AP) — Pietro Nenni, leader of the Italian Socialist party, called on the government Wednesday night to protest a Vatican decree forbidding Roman Catholics from supporting Communist sympathizers in elections.

Nenni, whose party often sides with the Communists on issues, charges in the Chamber of Deputies that the Vatican order violated the treaty regulating relations between Italy and the Holy See.

The Christian Democratic government of Premier Antonio Segni did not indicate whether it would agree to a parliamentary debate on the motion filed by Nenni and several other Socialist deputies.

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet court sentenced two Turkish spies to 15 years in prison after they confessed they were trained by U.S. and Turkish espionage experts, the Soviet army newspaper Red Star reported today.

The two, Kumela Gil Risa Adin and Isa Kamil Ogili, had a pistol and three cameras when caught, the paper said. They were tried in a Caucasian district military court.

BERLIN (AP) — East German Premier Otto Grotewohl today rejected American suggestions that all Berlin be put under international control.

The Communist Premier also rejected again any discussion of German reunification at the foreign ministers' conference opening in Geneva May 11.

"The question of reunification is an internal German affair and will be a matter of debate at Geneva," Grotewohl told the East German Parliament.

The Premier's statement almost certainly reflected the line the Soviet Union will take at the parity on Berlin and Germany.

MONTREAL (AP) — Members of the Order of the Grey Nuns have collected mementoes of Venerable Marguerite D'Youville, whom the Roman Catholic Church may one day rank as the first woman saint native to North America.

The relics concern the childhood, married life and religious career of the nun who founded the Sisters of Charity, known around the world as the Grey Nuns. She died in 1771.

At special ceremonies in Rome in June, she will be beatified as Blessed Mother D'Youville, one step away from canonization.

Plant Explosion Breaks Windows

ALIQUIPPA, Pa. (AP) — An explosion broke windows of homes and autos in a two-block area late Wednesday night at the West Aliquippa plant of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

No one was hurt in the actual blast. However, Mrs. Julia Shomsky, 64, was slightly hurt in a fall at her home which was damaged by the explosion.

Police said Mrs. Shomsky and two other occupants of the home literally were blown out of bed by the concussion. Her home is only 50 feet from the plant.

The explosion occurred in a section of the plant occupied by Air Products, Inc., which supplies oxygen to the plant for steel making. An official said the blast apparently occurred in a meter on a vent line connected to an oxygen storage tank. The tank did not explode.

STEEL FIRMS REJECT PRICE FREEZE PLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—A union proposal that steel prices be frozen has been rejected by the nation's 12 largest steel companies.

The companies told the United Steelworkers of America that "it would be completely unlawful for the steel companies to agree among themselves or with your union on the prices to be charged for steel products."

The union contends a price freeze in the industry would not violate federal antitrust laws.

Refuse Wage Boost

In a letter to Union President David J. McDonald Wednesday, the companies also turned down a proposal that they increase wages and other benefits in a new contract on the basis of output per man-hour and profits.

The companies, however, agreed to the union proposal that contract negotiations start May 4, instead of May 18 as scheduled. The letter told the union: "Our bargaining team is prepared to meet with yours at any time."

Would Hold Wage Level

The current contract, covering half a million workers in the industry, expires June 30.

The 12 companies reiterated their proposal of April 10 that the best way to combat inflation would be to continue present wages in the industry for another year. The union has turned down this proposal, contending that wage increases and other contract benefits are justified by the industry's profit position and the national economic situation.

Would Point Out Subsidence Danger

HARRISBURG (AP)—Repeal of the 1957 act requiring that deeds to property over coal mines point out the danger of subsidence was proposed in a House bill introduced Wednesday.

The 1957 statute also requires notice in such deeds that coal mining rights are not included with the property.

$2 HAIRCUTS? NO!

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Chapter 740 of the Associated Master Barbers of America has decided that "conditions do not warrant" an increase in the price of men's haircuts.

It was good news for Philadelphians. Only last week they got word from another barbering group, the Pennsylvania League of Master Barbers, that conditions do warrant an increase — from $1.50 to $2 a head by August.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Highways Department today offered to hold public hearings on the effect of construction of a traffic interchange at the entrance of Olmsted Air Force Base, Middletown.

Following Up On Health Reports

With physical and dental examinations of school children complete for this school year, the Health Service report for March, submitted to the directors of the Gettysburg Joint School district Monday evening, states that the remainder of the school term "will be devoted to follow-up on defects found in the screening tests and in recording results of the screening tests on the individual health records."

The March report shows that 353 students reported to the health service in the month, 301 of them because of sickness or injury and 52 for gymnasium excursions. Fourteen students were taken home ill and parents called for 50 others. Nurses visited three homes. Seventy-two students were referred to their doctors and four to dentists.

The health report was signed by Miss Ellen Miller and M. Lucille Brennan, the school nurses.

DON DRYSDALE AND ANTONELLI PICK UP WINS

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Don Drysdale and Johnny Antonelli, a pair of young aces who went a long way to go nowhere last season, are back in business again, flashing some of the old sparkle.

It was Drysdale, a 22-year-old right-hander, who won 17 as a National League sophomore and went West with the transplanted Dodgers last season boomed as the star of the Los Angeles staff. Instead, he went wild and wound up with a 12-13 record.

Antonelli, a 27-year-old southpaw who twice has been a 20-game winner, didn't have it quite so bad when the Giants shifted to San Francisco. But his 16-13 record wasn't exactly what he had been counted on to deliver.

Johnny Beats Cubs

Wednesday night, things were different. Antonelli gave up a run on three singles in the first inning, then blanked the Chicago Cubs on two hits the rest of the way for a 7-1 victory, his second. That left the Giants, who got a pair of homers from Orlando Cepeda and another from Felipe Alou, with a 4-1 record in second place.

Drysdale gave up eight hits, but no runs at all, squaring his record at 1-1 with his first complete game as the Dodgers beat St. Louis 5-0.

Milwaukee's first-place Braves (3-0) were idle, along with Phillies, while Cincinnati (3-1) took third by handing winless Pittsburgh a fifth defeat, 10-5.

In the American League, Cleveland took first place with a 2-1, 10-inning victory over winless Detroit. Kansas City handed the Chicago White Sox their first loss 10-8. The New York Yankees defeated Baltimore 3-1. Boston rapped Washington 7-3.

SAYS RELIGION HEALTH HURT

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Justice Thomas D. McBride of the State Supreme Court claims religion and health were two of the reasons behind the Democratic state organization's refusal to back him for a full term on the bench.

McBride said Wednesday night the two points were raised by Joseph M. Barr, state Democratic chairman, at a party slatemaking conference.

McBride, Barr and Judge Michael J. Eagen of Lackawanna County, who has the party endorsement for Supreme Court, all are Roman Catholics. But McBride said the religious question was discussed before the party organization slated Eagen.

McBride, who appeared at a rally of his supporters, denied he was in poor health and offered to undergo a physical examination by Barr's own doctor.

Taneytown

HEAR HISTORY OF SCHOOLS AT LIONS MEETING

Teachers in Taneytown's elementary and high schools were guests of the Taneytown Lions Club at its meeting in Taney Inn Tuesday night. The program was in charge of Frank O. Wargny, elementary principal, second vice president of the club and chairman of its education committee.

Charles Reck, supervisor of elementary schools for Carroll County, spoke to the club and guests of "Taneytown Schools—Then and Now." He recalled the year 1875 when Levi Reid, at a salary of $225 a year, was the only teacher in Taneytown district and gave annual three-term instruction to an enrollment of 62 pupils.

"In those times of non-existent attendance laws," Reck said, "he averaged but 35 per cent attendance on a given day."

The speaker traced the progress from one-room schools to the comparatively large consolidated system of today. He quoted frequently from the reports of then Superintendent Newson.

Flagrant Nepotism

"Eighty-four years ago local trustees from each town were the only school board they had and Mr. Newson hesitated not at all to complain of their flagrant nepotism and other evidence of favoritism in the selection of teachers," Reck said.

"Pupils had the option of bringing their own textbooks—any kind they had and usually no two were alike—or of paying a book fee. It was not uncommon practice for student to attend intermittent terms only and to skip entirely that one during which the book fee was collected."

Reck recounted that by 1900 two more teachers, Emma Reaver and Mae Forest, were added and enrollment was up to 123. Of yearly expenses of $1,199, salaries accounted for $780.

Teachers Are Key

Reck also detailed other points in Taneytown school history through to the present high and elementary schools which have about 35 teachers. "The teacher retains the key to a good education," he said, "for no matter how big or small the building, how few or costly the tools, if the teacher is inspired, that education parents will call good."

President Frank T. Dunham conducted the meeting. Reck was introduced by Wargny. Merwyn C. Fuss gave the invocation. Singleton E. Remsburg led group singing with Harry J. Reindollar at the piano.

Lion District 22-W Governor Russell H. Marsh was a guest. The more than 30 teachers were introduced by the school principals.

Proceeds from the recent shrimp and oyster feed were reported at $455.66 and bake sale at $56.

The nominating committee reported these nominations: Delmar E. Riffle for president; Wargny, Fuss and the Rev. Edmund P. Welker for first, second and third vice president, respectively; Kenneth C. Shorb, secretary; Wilbert N. Hess, tail twister; John H. Hottinger, Lion tamer; Thomas Morrison and Thomas J. Smith, directors for two years.

Midget Ball Meeting

A meeting of boys between the ages of 9 and 12 will be held in the fire hall next Wednesday from 7 to 8 p.m. to sign up for midget baseball. Parents' permission slips may be signed at that time or secured for return later.

Manager of the Cards for the 1959 season will be Charles D. Baker, assisted by Eugene F. Eyer and Meredith E. Gross as coaches. Myron R. Tracey will manage the Cubs with Robert L. Bowers as coach.

Extend Campaign

BILL FOR ERIE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Legislation that would allow the city of Erie to issue a long-term lease on its port facilities passed the House 194-0 and was sent to the Senate Wednesday.

While aimed specifically at Erie, the bill also could apply to Chester since its provisions cover all Third Class cities having port facilities. It would authorize the cities to grant leases up to 25 years.

FAVORS LONG RANGE PLANS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Averell Harriman, former diplomat and New York governor, today urged planning of foreign aid over a four- or five-year period, as was done under the postwar Marshall Plan.

"There are a number of industrial countries who would follow our lead in an international approach" to investment in underdeveloped countries, he said in testimony prepared for the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. The committee is considering the Mutual Security Act of 1959.

"The Soviet Union should be invited to cooperate," Harriman said. "If she accepted, she would have to operate under agreed rules. If she declined, her motives would be exposed for all the world to see."

Harriman recently took a five-week trip to India and Pakistan and talked with a number of government leaders.

BALDWIN PARK, Calif. (AP)—Robert Wren, 50, a truck driver, worked all night on his income tax return. Then he slashed his wrist, temple and ankle with a bread knife, police reported. His wife Wilma found him bleeding on his bed and summoned police. He was reported in serious condition at a hospital.

CHICAGO (AP)—April Dawn—a time of freshness and beauty—was the name given a baby brought to the Community Hospital in suburban Zion Wednesday. That isn't her true name. But it was considered by nurses and hospital workers just right for the pretty baby girl who was found abandoned in a cardboard box on the front lawn of a Zion home.

Cries from the box were heard by Beverly Smith, 31, as she walked by the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt shortly after dawn. She found the baby, about two months old, shivering inside a pink embroidered kimono and three blankets. Temperatures were in the 40s.

The astonished Mrs. Smith took the foundling into the Schmidts' home and told them she found the baby in a box on their lawn. The Schmidts recalled they had seen the box when they returned home near midnight but thought someone had thrown it on the lawn.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Schmidt warmed the baby and fed her formula left with her in the box. April Dawn, who has dark brown hair and blue eyes and weighs a plump 9 pounds 7 ounces, was the pet of the nursery.

"We'll call her April Dawn—it was such a beautiful morning," said Gertrude Haase, hospital manager.

Today's Talk

All of us, to some remarkable degree, are daily leaving something of ourselves behind in the shape of pleasantness, or influence, and good deeds. Many an example of great living is left behind to bless an endless group of human beings. The most valuable wealth in this world is spiritual wealth. It is well that we keep scattering it along life's pathways for others to gain by it.

In my library are scores of inspiring books that have the names of many an unknown on their fly leaves but the richer for it is each book so inscribed — something reminding us of the past and yet alive in quiet memories. I recently viewed several manuscripts, signed by Robert Burns and others. We are influenced by such things that others have preserved and kept alive. It is a joy to leave tangible things behind, while still we live, proving that they have meaning to them.

I have many books that were in my father's library which he cherished. They date back to many years before he was born. The influence that they have had for good is a living thing. I am one who likes little keepsakes to remind me of happy events — things that have been dipped in love. They have a meaning of their own. Their influence more than we can measure.

My father and mother left integrity, honor, and a love of the beautiful, for me to absorb into my heart. We can get very poor in material things, but remain rich in the things left behind by others that will forever mould character. The great of this earth left more than money behind. They left examples of courage and the choicest of memories. Easter has come, and gone, but the world is rich from its memories. Each year it has made faith dominant.

He thought he'd drop when she replied: "Talk business now. What are you worth?"

"My love undying is," he said. "With all my wealth I'd thee endow."

The maiden merely turned her head And muttered: "What's your income now?"

"I came to talk of love," said he, Astounded at her strange transition. "But nowadays," calmly said she, "Love is a business proposition."

TO TAKE YEARS TO SETTLE ALL TAX QUESTIONS

By BOB HOLTON
HARRISBURG (AP)—How long will it take the State Revenue Department to settle all the questions being asked about application of the new and expanded 3 1/2 per cent sales tax?

One official of the department's Sales and Use Tax Bureau offered a conservative estimate of three to four years.

And the official, who declined quotation by name, "fared some convincing evidence to back his claim."

Takes Brainwork
The 3 per cent sales levy which went to Wednesday had been in effect for more than three years still was being interpreted in official regulations as late as last month.

"In something like this you have to deal with the intent of the Legislature and believe me it takes some legal brainwork to interpret a law of this magnitude," the official said.

Every day, the official said, there are new queries on whether the sales levy pertains to a particular case.

Some Real Dandies
"Some of the questions are real dandies but in many cases they have to be analyzed thoroughly and a regulation handed down," he added.

Under the bill signed Wednesday by Gov. Lawrence, the sales tax was boosted from 3 to 3 1/2 per cent and expanded to cover services and other items exempted in the levy which went out of per cent and expanded to ss sss aannnttax was boosted f effect.

"Our telephone has been buzzing here constantly since the tax was signed by Gov. Lawrence," said John Means, president of the Pennsylvania Retailers Assn. "We have gotten all sorts of questions and many of them we can't answer."

On Music Lessons
He said one musical instrument dealer asked whether he must charge the tax on music lessons he gives because the new levy is applicable to certain services.

Of course, he said, it would apply to music lessons.
"But we got some other calls for interpretation dealing with cleaning and pressing of formal clothes, repairing of furs and even the rainproofing of a raincoat," he said.

The bureau said it will have to "play the thing by ear" and draft regulations as the questions arise.

WILL OPPOSE SOME CHANGES IN LABOR BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) said today he would oppose the move to knock all Taft-Hartley law changes out of the Kennedy labor regulation bill.

The first major vote on the measure is to come next Tuesday on an attempt by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-NC) to eliminate such changes. The floor debate on the bill started Wednesday and continues today.

Dirksen's opposition to the Ervin proposal, voiced in an interview, left little chance of its adoption. Many Republicans are expected to follow his lead, and many Democrats also oppose the proposal.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), author of the bill, urged the Senate to retain the amendments to Taft-Hartley.

The AFL-CIO has declared it will oppose the bill if the Taft-Hartley changes are knocked out. Several of these long have been sought by labor.

Two of the principal ones would permit replaced strikers to vote in a bargaining election and would legalize prehire agreements in the construction industry.

STATE FIGHTS FOREST FIRES

HARRISBURG — Secretary of Forests and Waters Maurice K. Goddard said today that the state's forest fire crews are preparing themselves throughout the state for action against forest fires during the approaching fire season.

"Already there has been a rash of fires, mostly small in size, across the state," Goddard said. "As warmer, drier days come along during April, the danger of more serious fires will increase."

He added:
"Foresters, fire inspectors, and forest rangers of the Department of Forests and Waters, together with 4,000 fire wardens, are ready to move into action. Already some of the state's 150 forest fire towers are manned."

"Much of this expensive preparation is useless, however, without the cooperation of the public. A few simple rules, followed faithfully, will keep the loss of our forests to a minimum."
"Don't smoke in the woods on dry, windy days."
"Make sure all smoking material is crushed out on stones or in mineral soil."

"Use the ash tray of your car."
"Attend your camp fire and your trash fire. Burn in the evening when the wind has died down."
"Build a safe, leaf-free camp fire, and drown it when leaving."

HERTER MOST LIKELY CHOICE IN STATE DEPT.

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported today to be still focusing mainly on Christian A. Herter to succeed John Foster Dulles as secretary of state.

But aides of the vacationing Eisenhower said it may be a few days before he announces a choice of Herter, now the undersecretary, or someone else for the Cabinet post from which Dulles resigned Wednesday because of cancer.

Herter, who has been acting secretary since Dulles became ill early in February, still was given the inside track for the top job in most speculation.

Several Particularly Fitted
At a news conference where he announced Dulles' resignation, the President said there are several persons in government — "or at least a few"—with particular talent for the No. 1 State Department post.

He made that statement when a reporter remarked it had been taken pretty much for granted he would tap Herter, 64-year-old former member of the House of Representatives and onetime governor of Massachusetts.

Eisenhower said he didn't want to imply approval or rejection of any individual. He added he wanted to consult first with Dulles regarding a successor.

To Consult Several
James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said later that the President undoubtedly would consult with Herter and Vice President Nixon—and quite likely others.

The predictions are that those conferences may not be completed for a few days. And it is likely that Dulles' formal letter of resignation and Eisenhower's reply will be made public by the White House in advance of an announcement of a new secretary.

Was Dulles' Day
Aides said one reason Eisenhower didn't couple his own disclosure of the resignation with an immediate nomination of a successor was that he wanted no diversion of public attention from his warm tribute to the cancer-stricken official.

The President praised Dulles, 71, as a man of tremendous character, courage and wisdom. Eisenhower had a real struggle with his emotions in speaking of his incapacitated his close personal friend.

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Three men and three women convicted of conspiring to teach the violent overthrow of the federal government were sentenced Wednesday to prison terms and were fined a total of $16,500.

The prison sentences range from 2 1/2 to 5 years.

Bullets Top Diplomats
6-3 For Third Win; Play
At Johns Hopkins Friday

Bob Hulton's Gettysburg College baseball team got back on its winning stride Wednesday afternoon by topping Franklin and Marshall 6-3 at Lancaster. The Bullets are now 3-1.

Bucky Walters was the winning hurler although he was forced to leave after six innings because of arm trouble. He gave up only four hits, walked one and fanned two while blanking the Diplomats. Mel Jacobs finished the game and gave up three runs in the seventh.

The Bullets scored in the third inning when Connie Youse reached base on an error, advanced on a sacrifice and tallied on Gerry Long's single.

Two more runs came in the fifth. Youse singled but was forced by Walters. Long doubled. Youse scored on an infield out and Larry Liedel doubled home Walters.

In the sixth the Bullets added a run. Dick Smith walked and Ron Fredericks ran for him. Fredericks stole second, moved to third on an infield out and raced home on Youse's single to center.

The Bullets made it 6-0 with two in the top of the seventh. A walk to long, singles by Liedel and Jeff Kahler, and an error produced the runs.

F. and M. greeted Jacobs with three runs in its half of the same inning. A walk, double by Montgomery, and singles by Carey and Rouss turned the trick. Thereafter Jacobs was in command.

Gettysburg plays at Johns Hopkins Friday and at Western Maryland on Saturday.

HITS PLAN TO BAN TAXING OF NONRESIDENTS

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Special Service
WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to prohibit states from taxing non-residents incomes would have preposterous results if enacted in law, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY) said today.

Keating, whose state levies an income tax on New Jersey and Connecticut residents working in New York City an other border areas, said in a statement prepared for a Senate judiciary subcommittee:

"The denial of this obligation... would apply with equal force to the refusal of out-of-state residents to pay out-of-state gasoline taxes and tolls — a preposterous proposition."

Two Waitresses
He was the first of two waitresses slated to appear before the subcommittee today in opposition to the proposal.

The other is Joseph Murphy, New York State tax commissioner who is substituting for Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

In his prepared testimony, Keating admitted there may be inequities in New York's law but contended they are merely irritants which should be cured.

"The cure should not be allowed to destroy the whole system," he declared.

Long Recognized
Taxation by states of non-resident incomes has long been recognized by the courts, he said.

At the opening of the hearing Wednesday, only Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.), former mayor of Philadelphia, defended state or city income taxes on non-residents.

Philadelphia levies a wage tax on the 22,000 New Jersey residents working in that city.

Protesting such taxation were New Jersey Gov. Robert B. Meyner, New Jersey Sens. Clifford P. Case (R) and Harrison A. Williams (D), Connecticut Gov. A. A. Ribicoff and Connecticut Sens. Prescott Bush (R) and Thomas J. Dodd (D), the subcommittee chairman.

Differ On Handling
They differed, however, on how to handle the problem.

Meyner, Williams and Dodd rejected as retaliatory a plan by Case for a New Jersey tax on New Yorkers working in the Garden State.

Instead, Williams suggested an interstate compact to iron out inequities. With 31 states imposing income taxes, he said, the chances of prohibiting them quickly by constitutional amendment are slim.

HUMPHREY TO MAKE TEST OF '60 CHANCES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) is about to set out on a test run aimed at finding how he might fare in a race for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Humphrey, who will climax a six-state tour by speaking to the California Legislature, said he wants to tell the people what he thinks on current issues.

"I also want to get on more intimate and friendly terms with the Democratic leaders of these states," he said.

Humphrey will cover territory already criss-crossed by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.).

One of Humphrey's major objectives is to have a long talk with Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California. Brown has indicated he wants to be a favorite son. This would have the effect of ruling the California primary out of bounds for both Humphrey and Kennedy.

Humphrey realizes that, to get anywhere in the nomination contest, he must have some strong Western support. He probably will have to battle Kennedy in the Wisconsin primary as a prelude for what looks like a free-for-all in Oregon.

On his Western swing, which begins Saturday with a speech in Minneapolis, the Minnesota senator will campaign also in Washington, Oregon, California, Utah and Wyoming. If he can stir up interest in this area, the result would tend to offset Kennedy's acknowledged hold on New England. Kennedy has support also in the South.

Others frequently mentioned as potential Democratic candidates are Senators Stuart Symington of Missouri and Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Adlai E. Stevenson.

ASK COURT TO RULE ON PROBE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Attorneys for a Luzerne County coal operator have asked the State Supreme Court to rule on the legality of a legislative committee probing a mining cave-in that entombed 12 men last Jan. 22.

Counsel for Louis Fabrizio, owner of the Knox Coal Co., asked the high court Wednesday to set aside a ruling by Dauphin County Court affirming the committee's right to conduct the inquiry. The appeal was filed with the Supreme Court prothonotary at Harrisburg by Attys. Arthur A. Maguire and Thomas F. Burke.

Acting President Judge William H. Neely said he would prepare a written opinion on his ruling which was handed down in Dauphin Court on Monday. Fabrizio had contended the committee was illegal because it was established by a resolution rather than by a law signed by the governor. The men were trapped when the rain-swollen Susquehanna River burst into the Knox firm's River Slope operation at Port Griffith, near Pittston.

Dulles Traveled 560,000 Miles In 46 Countries In Six Years; To Be Sorely Missed In Crises

Editor's Note—The effects of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' career on international events will be discussed and argued for a long time. This is the first of a two-part series assessing those effects in the light of Dulles' resignation Wednesday. It is the work of John M. Hightower, whose coverage of foreign affairs for AP spans Dulles' official career.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—John Foster Dulles has been both violently denounced and extravagantly praised for his work in foreign affairs.

Few men in his position have been more controversial, and historians will be slow to adopt President Eisenhower's estimate that he was the country's greatest secretary of state.

But there can be no doubt that in the critical weeks ahead he will be sorely missed.

Tough For Successor

His successor faces a tough task in picking up the direction of foreign policy where Dulles, stricken by cancer, has put it down. In the six years he was in office, the lawyer-diplomat achieved great stature not only as a figure in American government but also as a leader of the free world in its struggle against expansive Chinese communism.

He demonstrated a rugged capacity for work—days, nights and weekends — which probably few other men can equal. He knew other leaders of the free world from close personal contacts and he traveled, with apparent relish, 560,000 miles on trips which took him to 46 countries.

This would be true even for a man in the position of Undersecretary of State Christian Herter, who has worked with Dulles for two years.

No Easy Period

But the times now allow no easy period of settling in. The man who takes over Dulles' desk has his work already cut out.

On April 29, he must meet in Paris with the foreign ministers of Britain, France and West Germany to make final preparations for negotiations with the Soviets on delicate and dangerous questions of the future of Berlin and Germany. On May 11, with his British and French colleagues, he must sit opposite Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in a Big Four conference that is likely to stretch into a grueling month of frustrating argument.

Big Summer Job

Very likely in late July or August there will be a Big Four summit conference in which the new secretary will play a key role as the chief adviser to the President in further exchanges with the Soviets.

For such negotiations as these, Dulles was prepared by long experience and a love of the game of diplomacy born of a lifelong interest in foreign affairs. His ambition to take over the job went back to his boyhood association with two other secretaries of state, his grandfather, John Watson Foster, and his uncle, Robert Lansing. Dulles achieved that ambition Jan. 21, 1953.

Complete Confidence

Dulles ran the State Department with complete confidence in his the sentence to the Superior Court. The Superior Court opinion, written by Judge Blair Gunther, said there is no evidence from which the jury could have inferred corrupt motive on the part of the defendant. It added:

"The judgment of the court below is reversed and the defendant is discharged."

McSorley contended Evans was giving the commission his advice and the benefit of his experience as chairman for years.

When McSorley was sentenced by Judge Homer L. Kreider last Aug. 27 in Dauphin County Court his legal counsel said McSorley had been "more severely punished than his misdemeanor would require."

tion, Dulles wrote Eisenhower:

"It is apparent to me that I shall not be well enough soon enough to continue to serve as secretary of state."

Dulles wrote further that he was brought up in the belief that this nation was founded with a mission "to help build where liberty and justice would prevail." He added:

"Today that concept faces a formidable and ruthless challenge from international communism. This has made it manifestly difficult to adhere steadfastly to our national idealism and national mission, and at the same time avoid the awful catastrophe of war."

"Happy To Serve"

Dulles, in a letter dated Wednesday, also told the President:

"If I can, in a more limited capacity, continue to serve I shall be happy to do so."

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, reported today that Eisenhower also discussed the matter of a Dulles successor with staff aides.

With the President at the breakfast session were Hagerty, Gordon Gray, a special assistant on national security matters, and Brig. Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaster, White House staff secretary.

Hagerty also indicated that Vice President Nixon had been sounded out on Eisenhower's behalf regarding a successor to Dulles.

Asked if the President had talked to Nixon on that subject, Hagerty replied:

"No—not directly."

Hagerty declined to shed any new light on when Eisenhower will announce his choice.

Shenandoah To Use $2 Bills

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. — Shenandoah Downs, America's newest race track, will bring back an old turf favorite when its 62-night inaugural meeting opens May 1.

The two-dollar bill, which has all but disappeared from the racing scene, will be used, Mutuel Manager Gene Tuckwiler has announced. The "duce" once was the backbone of pari-mutuel operations, but most tracks have stopped using it.

Shenandoah's decision is prompted in part by its 22-minute interval between races. Tuckwiler said. Officials figure the handy two-spot will help them serve more fans in the mutuel lines.

HOTEL BLAST KILLS GUEST

MONTREAL (AP)—A man carrying 20 sticks of dynamite in an overnight bag registered at the downtown Queen's Hotel Wednesday night. Less than two hours later a blast shook the building, taking his life and injuring two persons.

Detectives said it was suicide and that the man was Guy Charbonneau, about 40, from the farming community of St. Lin, Que., 35 miles north of Montreal.

Police had no immediate clues to his motive, and no note was found.

His fourth floor room and one adjoining were demolished. But there was no damage to a room three doors away in which a U.S. space expert, Dr. John P. Hagen, was registered. Dr. Hagen, chief of the U.S. Vanguard satellite project, was addressing a chemical meeting on the hotel's main floor at the time.

The blast punched a four-foot hole through the ceiling of the room below Charbonneau's, slightly cutting its two occupants.

SNOW CANCELS ROYAL VISIT; LOVE SUFFERS

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Young King Hussein of Jordan was to visit the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs. But a snowstorm caused the monarch to cancel the visit.

"It's a tragedy," wailed 18-year-old Barbara Edwards of Denver. Barbara's fiancé, Lee Barnwell, 23, of Greenville, S.C., is a classman at the academy. He's restricted to the campus for violating regulations.

"Golly, he's been in confinement since the first week in March, and he won't get out until June 2. He graduates the next day, and the day after that we're getting married."

"Who ever heard of a girl not being allowed to see her fiancé for nearly three months before the wedding?" said Barbara. "I think it's downright mean!"

Like the sister academies, the Air Force Academy has a tradition that visiting royalty may grant amnesty to erring cadets.

Barbara sent Hussein a telegram, asking that he return.

Hussein's reply was sympathetic: Because of a tight schedule on his tour, he can't make up his Air Force Academy stop.

Wish Them Happiness

"But he wished us happiness on our marriage," sighed the brunette bride-to-be.

Barbara broke her right leg in a skiing accident a year ago. A second operation was necessary last February to correct a broken bone.

Barnwell made use of a personal car to visit Barbara in a hospital here, and personal cars are taboo for cadets.

Now he and Barbara are planning their marriage by mail.

Bill Regulates Workers' Leave

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House has approved a bill requiring municipal employees absent from work more than three consecutive days due to illness to present a doctor's certificate as proof.

By a vote of 187-7 the bill was passed Wednesday and sent to the Senate for further action.

It also would permit municipal employees to accumulate sick leave over a five-year period rather than the three-year period now in the law.

Preliminary Plans For New Littlestown High School Get Okay; Work Advanced

Progress announcements were made on the new high school to be built, and the proposed budget was adopted temporarily at the April session of the Joint School Committee of the Littlestown Jointure, held on Tuesday evening in the high school building.

The State Department has approved preliminary plans for the new high school building. C. L. Forrer, architect for the new building, and his associates, including both heating and electrical engineers, were in attendance at the meeting to discuss the plans. They were authorized by the board members to go ahead with working drawings which they plan to have ready to advertise for bids by the latter part of this summer. The core boring bid has been awarded to Thomasville Drill and Testing Company, of Thomasville.

Lloyd E. Crouse, chairman of the building committee, presented a progress report. The board also voted the following recommendations: "Resolved that the Joint Boards of Littlestown School System recommend to the Littlestown Joint School Authority that the School Authority make application to Littlestown Borough Council, to annex to the borough that portion of the 20 acre site for the proposed new junior-senior high school which lies in Germany Twp.; and for the extension of appropriate sewer and water service to the new site.

Mrs. Deardorff Resigns
The proposed budget was adopted temporarily at the meeting, and will be open for inspection prior to adoption at the May meeting. The budget provides for total receipts of $348,730; from districts as follows: Germany, $76,699.33; Littlestown borough, $132,988.96; Mt. Joy Twp., $38,134.09; Mt. Pleasant, $29,411.73; and Union Twp., $62,845.90. Expenditures under general are $1,165; cost of instruction, $257,705; coordinate activities, $23,385; maintenance of plants, $16,450; operation of plants, $25,250; fixed charges, $18,525, and capital outlay, $6,250, which will cover the cost of a new school bus.

The resignation of Mrs. Elmira S. Deardorff as vocal music instructor was accepted with regret by the board. Mrs. Deardorff has been teaching in the jointure since the beginning of the 1955-1956 term, and has resigned to accept a similar position in Gettysburg.

Permission was also granted in accordance with a request from Maurice E. Bream, of the faculty, that he be relieved of coaching duties.

King's Report
Paul E. King, supervising principal of the Jointure, presented his report, which revealed that 136 days had been taught to the end of March. Special activities during the month included the annual career conference at Gettysburg College, attended by the sophomore and junior classes with a number of teachers serving as group chairmen. There were two special assemblies by Baillie Theater group, and one on Liquid Air. Miss Hess of the State Employment Agency talked to members of the twelfth grade. The annual fashion show of the Home Economics Department was presented. The third marking period ended and report cards were distributed in both elementary and high school. The tenth anniversary banquet of the FHA took place in the high school cafeteria.

All members of the freshman class were given an intelligence test. Four seniors took the state scholarship exam, Janice Breighner, Roberta Graham, Michael Collins and Karl Bankert. An all sports banquet was sponsored for the high school team players by the Littlestown VFW and Eagles. The eighth grade students toured the Gettysburg Battlefield, accompanied by faculty members, Elmer W. Gall, James L. Rhoades and LaRue O. Epler. Mr. Shaef, representative of the Department of Labor and Industry, made an inspection tour of the buildings during March.

A total of 20,896 meals were served in the cafeterias, during the 20 days in operation.

Mr. King also gave the report of the school nurse, Mrs. Brenda B. Walker, in which was noted that Mrs. Walker made 19 home calls and gave 185 first aid treatments in school; four pupils required further treatment at the physician's or dentist's office and three required X-rays. Twenty-one baseball candidates were examined by Dr. Leonard L. Potter, as well as a new cafeteria employee. Arrangements were made for Mrs. Althea Gall to give home-bound instruction to a sixth grade pupil who is ill at home. There are still some cases of communicable diseases in the primary grades. Mrs. Walker noted, but attendance has improved and the general health of the pupils is good. Mrs. Walker attended the career conference and was chairman of the nursing program.

Extend School Term
The report of the treasurer follows: Total receipts for March, $37,312.98; and expenditures as follows: General control, $164.15; instruction, $18,720.13; auxiliary agencies, $1,869.67; coordinate activities, $441.87; operation of plants, $2,881.39; maintenance of plants, $782.27; totaling, $24,859.48.

The board voted to extend the school term to 183 days instead of the present 180. George Worley reported to the athletic committee, which met last week at the school, the following unanimous conclusions resulting: To forego all expenses for lighting used by the ball club during the 1958 season; to have three keys only issued for lock on the field, one for the janitor, one for the supervising principal and one for the local baseball manager; that all schedules of town teams or other activities be posted in the office of the supervising principal; that when lights are used, parties occupying the field be responsible for reading of the meter before and after game or activity and report to the principal's office; payment on the basis of regular charges made by the Metropolitan Edison Company must be made before the club may use the field again; Ralph C. Unger shall be named custodian, but other persons opening the gates will be responsible for closing and locking them; all trash and other debris shall be removed by the users and the committee discourages the use of the field at night.

Report Repair Needs
Bernard Hess, reporting for the property and supplies committee, which met last Thursday at the school to tour the buildings for the purpose of making recommendations for repairs and improvements for the 1959-60 school term, presented the following suggestions: At Rolling Acres Elementary School — the flagpole needs to be reset; spouting is in need of repair; room for developmental reading teacher must be improved; four rooms need painting; outside of building needs paint, two coats in places; exit doors should be repaired; two rooms in the basement must be finished to accommodate two classes since there is a possibility that the E. King St. School will be abandoned.

At the high school, the basement must be sealed with fire resistant material mandated by the Department of Labor and Industry; an additional exit to the shop is required by the department; two rooms are to be painted as per standing agreement; stone coping around the roof needs repair; hard top part of the parking area and approaches to the building; boilers need relining. At the athletic field, enclosure under the bleachers is to be completed, as it was approved last year.

Report on State Inspection
Supervising Principal King also reported that when the inspection was made in March by the Department of Labor and Industry, there was a clean slate at Rolling Acres School, with just two recommendations at the high school as listed above. At the E. King St. School, it was recommended that fire resistant ceilings be installed in the basement; label doors in the boiler room and fire resistant materials to enclose it; also all internal stairways should be made fire resistant and the Pennsylvania approved type of fire alarm system be installed.

The board voted to appeal to the Industrial Board of the Department of Labor and Industry for a hearing through their attorney, Daniel E. Teeter, when plans and details for the necessary improvements will be submitted by the jointure's architects, C. L. Forrer Associates.

Okay Tuition Rates
These tuition rates were approved: $220.29 elementary and $301.93 for high school. Bills and salaries were ordered paid.

Present at the meeting were Dale W. Stary, president, who presided; Richard A. Maitland, Bernard Hess, Arthur Buehler, Lloyd E. Crouse, Karl P. Bankert, John Schwartz, Leroy Lippy, Daniel Bair, Wilbur E. Mackley, Fred Hartlaub, Charles M. A. Shildt, Clement B. Hawn, Glenn C. Bowers, George Worley, Wade H. Brown, George W. Strevig, Joseph Clabaugh, Bernard Murren, Secretary Henry E. Waltman, and Principal King, together with the attorney and architects.

The school directors will meet again on Tuesday, May 12, 8 p.m.

Seek Legal Advice
A tentative budget for the school year 1959-60 was presented at the April session of the borough board of the Littlestown Tuesday evening at the high school building. The tentative budget includes: General operation, $3,650; Littlestown Jointure

Early Teammates

Both President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles were still to achieve their high government offices when they discussed national affairs in this New York park bench conference in 1952. At an afternoon meeting Mrs. Bowen, a violinist who has written several works on music, said, "Music has been the happiest fact of my existence, especially of playing of music as an amateur. The very great pleasure of making music without a ticket. If you play yourself, you will get more out of hearing virtuosi on the concert stage."

The new members of the fraternity are: Sandra M. Amundsen, Tenafly, N. J.; Elizabeth J. Miller, Hungerford, Ronald Paul, Harrisburg; Robert B. Wolf, Oaklyn, N. J.; Robert L. Schumann, Washington, N. ## MEXICAN COW TRAPS FLYING BANK ROBBER

the nominating committee to report at the next meeting.

A card party for the benefit of St. Mary's Catholic church will be held in the high school cafeteria on Monday.

The Fairfield Lions Club will hold a ladies' night and election of officers at the dinner meeting Tuesday evening.

An evening of games for the benefit of the Fairfield High School Alumni Association will be held in the high school cafeteria Wednesday evening, April 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Polley and family have moved into the D. P. Polley farmhouse.

The Pen-Mar Baseball League will open officially on Sunday, April 26, when Littlestown will play Fairfield on the home field. Other games will be Emmitsburg at Blue Ridge Summit at Hanover at Taneytown.

brought to earth by a Mexican cow, sat in jail today awaiting a removal hearing.

Sprenz, 29, heard U.S. Commissioner Frank V. Hill set his bond at $100,000 Wednesday. The commissioner continued a removal hearing until copies of the warrant for the arrest of the Ohio man arrived from Cincinnati.

Sprenz was on the FBI's list of the 10 most wanted criminals.

Usually a smooth and quick talker, Sprenz refused to answer newsmen's questions when he was brought across the border from Mexico.

Cow Wrecks Plane
Mexican police nabbed him at Cozumel, a Yucatan island resort, Tuesday. He was driven to Laredo.

The balding, slender prisoner told FBI agents the airplane he had flown down the Texas coast to Mexico was wrecked April 3 when a cow got in his path on takeoff and smashed a wing. He was attempting to take off from a beach between Tampico and Vera Cruz.

The wrecked plane, one of several used by Sprenz in his escapes, tipped Mexican officials he was in that area.

Hill told Sprenz he faced a charge of robbing a branch bank in Hamilton, Ohio, of $25,955 last March 2. At the Hamilton airport

Drumming At Dawn Turns Out To Be Only Lovesick Woodpecker On TV Aerial

RYE, N. Y. (AP) — Ten days ago a staccato knocking and banging awakened the Richard Spath household at 5 a.m.

"Good heavens," said Mrs. Spath, "whatever can that be?" "Must be the plumbing," said her husband.

No, it wasn't the plumbing, said the plumber.

Second day: same time, same engineer. Not the heating, said the engineer.

Culprit Found
Third day: ditto time and racket. Gas man called in. No defect, the man said.

Fourth day: same old time and tribulation. Spath donned a robe and hurried outside. There, in the dawn, he saw the culprit: a downy woodpecker hammering like mad on the television aerial.

"Go home," "shoot!" and rocks and hand-clapping failed to scare away the bird.

he stole a plane, flew to Canton, Ohio, and escaped.

Wednesday, Spath consulted the National Audubon Society. Advised the society: Turn the garden hose on him; or get a toy pop gun and frighten it; or get a fireworks permit and shoot some roman candles at it.

To Try Hose First
Spath has decided to use the hose treatment first. He'll probably get help from his wife and their two youngsters, Greg, 6, and John, 3.

That downy woodpecker isn't just a mean old cuss, said the Audubon Society. He's merely using the TV antenna as a sort of sounding board to issue a spring lovecall.

At any event, the spokesman continued, the hammering won't go beyond the next few weeks or so. By that time, the bird either will have found a mate or will give up. And what's more important to the Spaths, it will go away.

TOKYO (AP) — Red China today claimed that its revolutionary commune system now embraces 99 per cent of its peasant families.

Under the commune system the peasants farm according to a centralized plan and under central direction, live usually in camps and settlements, eat in community dining rooms, turn their children during work hours over to commune nurseries, kindergartens and schools, and send their aged to old folks homes.

lege in Philadelphia to which the federation has already donated $75,000 of the $100,000 pledged several years ago to build a new wing. This is the only college in the western hemisphere where only women doctors are educated. Mrs. Brown said the 84,000 club women in Pennsylvania have donated more than half a million dollars to worthy causes.

She urged the clubs to send their slate of officers to the federation before June 1.

Mrs. Jones also asked that members participate in the Vogue sewing contest, that they send news items concerning their groups to "The Clubwoman," official Federation publication, and she announced the conference on Community Development at Home and Abroad to be held on July 15, 16 and 17 at the Pennsylvania State University.

Protection Against Moths, Kitchen Built-Ins, Floor Polisher Uses Discussed

By MRS. HELEN TUNISON

Associate Home Economist

Moths cause thousands of dollars worth of damage each year in their feasting campaign. And now is the time that moths begin to appear in stored clothing if it has been kept in cool or cold rooms. As days become warmer, more moths hatch and breed families.

The small buff-colored moths should be a warning that damage may have been done to furs, feathers, and fabrics. Future damage is in prospect, unless corrective measures are taken.

Fortunately moth control can be taken in the stride of spring housecleaning. Air and brush seldom used clothing. Dry clean winter clothing before storage and spray the storage room or box with household type DDT.

Be Thorough
Thoroughly clean and spray or paint closets with the 5 per cent household type DDT, and don't forget the floor, baseboard, and undersides of shelves. Cracks in the floor, backs of baseboards, and cold air furnace intakes often accumulate lint, an excellent medium for moth development. These places should be vacuum cleaned, and if necessary, sprayed or painted with the household DDT.

Thoroughly vacuum carpets and rugs and hard-to-get-at places. Garments that can safely be machine or hand laundered can be washed and rinsed with moth repellent solution in the last rinse. Follow instructions on the garment and on the moth repellent product for best results. If the garments can't be laundered, have them dry cleaned and treated to resist moths before storing. Unless properly protected furs and fabrics of wool or blends of wool and man-made fibers can be rich feeding grounds for moths.

Built-in Vs. Free Standing
Give careful consideration to advantages and disadvantages of conventional ranges and built-in units before buying or changing from one to the other. The built-in units have had a tremendous rise in popularity.

The built-in oven can be located at a convenient height for using and cleaning without the home-maker having to stoop or bend. Storage space may be increased since space becomes available under both oven and separate surface cooking units. Surface cooking units built into the counter top eliminates some hard-to-clean space between equipment. They also provide flexibility in number and location of units.

Question Of Space

But these separate units may take wall and floor space which might be more valuable for some other use. It may be necessary to put the oven apart from the main working area. As much baking or broiling goes on as part of meal preparation near serving time, many extra steps may be necessary.

If quality and size are the same, the price of surface units and separate ovens is comparable to the standard range. Installation costs may increase for the separate appliances.

No difference is noted in efficiency or operating costs. But consider the space needed and provided. Will one wall oven substitute for the large oven or double ovens in a conventional range? Cooking habits of the family provide the answer to this question. If two ovens are needed install them side by side. They will be more convenient, but may require more wall space than is available.

Polisher Is Handy

Is there a large number of smooth surface floors in your home? Then, look into a floor polisher as the answer to your cleaning problems.

Floor polishers make caring for uncovered wood floors and linoleum, asphalt, and rubber tile floors easier and less time consuming. They are as much a help in cleaning and waxing floors as vacuum cleaners are in keeping rugs and carpets free from dust and dirt.

Use a floor polisher to scrub, wax, and buff floors. The revolving motion of its brushes is excellent for scrubbing and polishing. Usually you must change brushes for scrubbing and waxing, then replace them with felt pads for buffing. However, one new polisher does both scrubbing and waxing with one brush.

New uses for floor polishers are constantly being developed. Sev-

MURDER TRIAL IS DELAYED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The trial of 37-year-old George T. Hope, charged with the murder of his bedridden and suffering wife, has been put off for at least three months.

Quarter Sessions Judge Joseph E. Gold, acting on a recommendation by Dr. John G. Torney, directed Wednesday that Hope be committed to Norristown, Pa., State Hospital for the three month period for observation, diagnosis and treatment.

Dr. Torney, chief of the court's neuropsychiatric division, said Hope was not mentally able to stand trial.

Hope has been in the detention ward of Philadelphia General Hospital since March 20. On that day, by his own admission, he killed his wife, Ada, also 37, to end her suffering from a number of ailments.

REACTION TO NEW TAX LAW IS MOUNTING

HARRISBURG (AP)—Varied reaction, much of it negative, mounted today over Pennsylvania's new 3½ per cent sales tax.

The talk started shortly after the sales tax bill was signed by Gov. Lawrence Wednesday.

Rep. John E. Whittaker (R-Lycoming) called it a "yoke upon the necks of labor" in a House speech.

Undefensible As Permanent
A labor spokesman said the measure was all right in a fiscal emergency, but would be "undefensible as a permanent tax policy or philosophy."

With that statement, Harry Boyer, president of the State CIO Council, disagreed with Lawrence who told newsmen earlier that he considered the tax a permanent part of Pennsylvania's tax structure.

Favor Income Tax
Boyer was among labor leaders on the governor's Tax Advisory Committee who recommended increasing the sales levy from 3 to 3½ per cent in order to help the state overcome serious financial problems in the next two years.

"However," Boyer said Wednesday, "we filed a statement with the report in which we said we considered the measure an emergency measure and one that should be limited in life to the end of the 1959-61 biennium."

Boyer added that his organization still believed a graduated income tax is the only equitable form of taxation.

HERTER'S ARTHRITIS IS FACTOR

WASHINGTON (AP)—Christian A. Herter's arthritis may be a factor in whether he succeeds John Foster Dulles as secretary of state.

President Eisenhower, it is believed, would consider whether the affliction would interfere with Herter's being an active foreign policy chief. Herter is now acting secretary of state.

Herter's personal physician, Dr. Theodore B. Bayles, provided his own answer to this question Wednesday night. The 64-year-old New Englander, he said, is "perfectly capable" of carrying the full burden of secretary of state.

Herter suffers from arthritis of the hips. It causes him to bend his 6-foot-5 frame forward when he walks.

It's a disease he has put up with for the past 10 to 15 years. Dr. Bayles said the condition was "progressed very little" in the past eight years.

"He doesn't have a crippling kind of arthritis," the doctor reported in an interview. "Mr. Herter suffers some discomfort when he walks or stands for any length of time."

No Discomfort
"But he has absolutely no discomfort when sitting at a conference table, for example, or resting in bed at night."

Ever since he became undersecretary of state two years ago, Herter has relied on light-weight metal arm crutches to move about. They relieve the pressure on his hip joints.

Reds Launch Propaganda Drive Against Allies And Egypt On Eve Of Oil Meet

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

A meeting of grave importance to the Western world opens in Cairo today.

After much jockeying and many postponements, the Arab League is holding its first petroleum conference, attended by representatives of both the producing and nonproducing countries of the Middle East.

Iraq, one of the big producers, will not be represented. A combination of Arab rivalries and Communist pressure has fomented a violent feud between the Iraqi regime of Premier Abdel Karim Kassem and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

Reds Hold Influence
Communist influence is likely to figure heavily in the Cairo deliberations. Already the Communists have opened an offensive to identify the congress with the cold war between the Kremlin and the West.

Inspired and instructed by Soviet experts, the Communists are attempting to put a painful squeeze on Nasser.

The purpose of the conference is to determine ways to use the wealth from Arab oil to better the lot of all Arab countries.

Need U.S., British
This oil cannot be produced without the Americans and British. Many of the participants in the congress, indeed, will be representatives of American and British companies operating in the Middle East. Only a few Arabs are competent to discuss the vast complexities of the oil industry, and surely the Arabs must have Western technical advice and assistance in any program they undertake.

The Communists, therefore, find themselves in the position of being able to resurrect a specter which so often has moved Arabs to violence: Western colonialism.

Attack Nasser
American and British participation in the congress, the Communists are saying in a mammoth propaganda drive, proves Egypt's Nasser is the tool of imperialism and should be overthrown by patriotic nationalists. This attack has a number of purposes.

At all costs, the Communists want to keep Iraq out of any all-Arab scheme to use the oil riches. Iraq represents a future golden opportunity for a first Communist grab at control in Arab oil affairs.

More Red Charges
At the same time, the Communists want to weaken other Arab rulers, in Kuwait, Saudi Arabia and the little British protectorates. The Communists will try to make the rulers suspect in the eyes of nationalists. America and Britain, the Arabs are told, support hated Israel. American and British "monopolies" collaborate with Nasser to exploit Arab riches. Nasser is trying to grab Iraq's oil for his own purposes, the Reds charge.

Nasser is in a bit of a fix. In his furious eruption of anti-West fever between 1955 and late 1958, he made much of his economy and military establishment depend-

QUESTIONS, ANSWERS TO NEW SALES TAX

HARRISBURG (AP)—Questions and answers on the operation of the new 3½ per cent sales tax law:

Q. What is taxed at 3½ per cent?

A. Everything that was taxed at 3 per cent, plus other items.

Q. What other items?

A. Electric, telephone and telegraph bills, except for toll calls out of the state; tools and maintenance equipment purchased by public utilities; charges for repairs and services in certain instances.

Q. How about restaurant meals?

A. Restaurant meals previously were subject to the sales tax only when they cost 50 cents or more. Now, they are taxable starting at 11 cents.

Q. What is meant by repairs and services that are subject to the tax?

A. If the article upon which work is performed is a taxable article, then the repair, installation or service of that item is taxable.

Q. Using a television set as an example, how would the tax apply?

A. No. Nor would a haircut or a permanent wave be taxable. Q. Are there any other services that would be taxable?

A. Yes. These include all charges, including labor costs, for washing, cleaning, waxing, polishing or lubricating any motor vehicle.

Q. Are automobile trade-ins or

A. To start with, a television set is subject to the sales tax upon purchase. Before you paid the tax only on the tubes and other parts that went into repairing the set. Now the tax applies to labor charges as well.

Q. What are some other articles on which charges for repairs, services or installation are subject to the sales tax?

A. Air conditioners and refrigeration equipment, electrical and gas appliances, garden equipment and machinery, sewing machines, watches, clocks and jewelry, motor vehicles, locks, business and calculating machines, awnings, leather goods, motorcycles, motorbikes, scooters and bicycles, radios, furniture and upholstery, toys and hobby equipment, sporting goods, musical instruments, pleasure craft, machinery and equipment, book repairs and re-binding, armature rewinding, welding, blacksmithing, machining.

Q. What kind of repairs are non-taxable?

A. Those involving articles that are tax-exempt upon purchase. For example, repairs to shoes, clothing, farm and manufacturing equipment.

Q. What about repairs to real estate such as a home or other building?

A. They are not taxable. An example of this would be the labor costs for installation of asphalt tile on the floor of your basement.

Q. Are such services as those performed by a doctor, dentist or lawyer taxable?

A. No. Nor would a haircut or a permanent wave be taxable.

Q. Are there any other services that would be taxable?

A. Yes. These include all charges, including labor costs, for washing, cleaning, waxing, polishing or lubricating any motor vehicle.

Q. Are automobile trade-ins or

MERGER VOTES ARE ALLOWED AT PRIMARIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new law signed by Gov. Lawrence Wednesday will allow voters in primary elections to decide on whether to form union or merged school districts.

Under present law the question may be submitted only at general or municipal elections.

Since unions or mergers become effective on the first Monday of July, the new law will permit voting on school merger proposals at the May primary, instead of the November election. This would allow school districts with merger or union plans to save a year.

Gov. Lawrence also signed into law a bill allowing physicians from outside Pennsylvania to certify a prospective teacher's mental and physical health.

A third school measure signed into law requires children to be vaccinated before they go to kindergarten. The old law required vaccination only before entering first grade.

liquor, beer and wine subject to the 3½ per cent sales tax.

A. No. These items were removed from the sales tax law before it was passed. New legislation on these provisions is still pending in the House.

Q. If restaurant meals are taxed, how about food you buy to eat at home?

A. Take-home food is tax exempt.

Q. Did the old 3 per cent hotel room tax go up to 3½ per cent, too?

A. Yes.

SPUD GROWERS ELECT NIXON

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's organized potato growers today named a cousin of Vice President Nixon as their president.

Leland Nixon, who owns a large potato farm near State College, was elected head of the State Cooperative Potato Growers' Assn. at a meeting of the board of directors here. He moves up to the new post from first vice president, succeeding Ivan Miller of Corry.

His father, Dr. E. L. Nixon, the vice president's uncle, was re-elected as the association's adviser.

Others elected: Robert Harwood, Wattsburg, Erie County, first vice president; Carl Wotring, Schenksville, Lehigh County, second vice president, and Harold Rice, Jersey Shore, third vice president.

Re-elected were: Leon Epler, Northumberland, secretary; George W. Tallman, Tower City, Schuylkill County, treasurer, and Owen L. Barkley, Camp Hill, general manager.

ALL RADIO, TV STATIONS TO LEAVE AIR

WASHINGTON (AP)—All television and radio stations in the United States will go off the air for half an hour Friday morning signaling the start of the annual national civil defense drill.

The Office of the Civil and Defense Mobilization said today the unusual silence will begin at 11:30 a.m., EST.

About 1,200 radio stations will resume broadcasting immediately on the two "Conelrad" civil defense frequencies—640 and 1240 on the radio dial.

The name is an abbreviation of control of electromagnetic radiation. The system, under which various stations alternate on the frequencies, was designed to prevent enemy bombers from using radio beams to find their targets.

All this will be part of Operation Alert 1959, designed to test the nation's readiness to cope with a mock nuclear attack by planes and missiles.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence Wednesday signed into law a bill appropriating $25,000 to pay for his inauguration last Jan. 30.

The appropriation includes money for erection of an inaugural booth and special grandstands in front of the main capitol building. The facilities went unused when inclement weather forced the inauguration indoors at the state Farm Show Building.

Legislation pending in the Senate would require that all future inaugurations take place at the Farm Show arena. The House already has passed the measure.

PAY GROUPINGS ARE LISTED BY SCOTT, CLARK

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
Associated Press Special Service
WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania's Sens. Joseph S. Clark (D) and Hugh Scott (R) have made public the salary groupings under which they pay their staffs here and at home.

At the same time, both senators, in separate statements emphasized that they have no relatives, either by blood or marriage, on the payroll.

The statements were issued in the wake of recent disclosures of numerous relatives of members of Congress holding down jobs here at high salaries.

Grouped Salaries
Payrolls of House members are made public by the House disbursing clerk. Senators are not required to reveal their payrolls and only a handful have done so.

Clark and Scott in their statements did not list individual salaries but rather grouped them into executive, secretarial and clerical personnel and listed the salary range within each group.

Clark Used Own Funds
Clark recently reported that his total allowance for staff salaries is around $140,000 a year. Scott presumably would have the same allowance since this amount is determined by population of the state the senator represents. The top salary a senator may pay a staff member is $16,300.

Clark said also that he spent $2,570 of his own money last year on matters directly connected with his job as senator and made political contributions and incurred political expenses of $7,000.

Scott listed his top-pay group as "executive personnel," including four persons ranging from $9,400 to $14,550 a year.

CONGRESSMAN GIVEN TRY AT RIDING ON AIR

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the House Space Committee took a ride—about an inch off the ground—on a flying platform which one colleague suggested could make the nation's highways obsolete.

Rep. Overton Brooks (D-La.) got onto the rectangular-shaped metal device at the conclusion of a committee hearing Tuesday and, at the touch of a switch, began skimming around just off the floor.

Spacetroneics Inc. of Washington

The Adams County Free Library's bookmobile made a call recently at the Major John Eisenhower home along the Water Works Rd. on the corner of President Eisenhower's farm, where the bookmobile used to stop on regular calls when Pitzer's schoolhouse, now part of the Eisenhower home, was in use.

The upper photo shows the interior of the bookmobile while Major Eisenhower and his son, David, look it over. On the left is C. P. Keefer, president of the Adams County Free Library. Beside him is Mrs. Marjorie R. Hinkle and at the end of the bookmobile is Mrs. Sally Bedford, both members of the library staff.

In the next picture David Eisenhower is looking at a book on World War II which had just been presented to him, after he displayed special interest in it. President Keefer is on the step of the bookmobile and on the left is Bernard Litvak, head of the Lit Brothers Store in Philadelphia and chairman of the Pennsylvania Citizen's Committee for National Library Week.

described the platform as an experimental version of its Hydro-Air Vehicle which it said is capable of moving over both water and ground at heights up to a few inches.

Carl W. Bollum, Spacetroneics president, said his firm is ready to begin production of more elaborate vehicles capable of speeds up to 100 miles an hour and designed for both military and civilian use.

He said his company hopes to have both commercial and sports vehicles available for sale to the public within 18 months.

Pumps force air under high pressure into a pan-shaped device under the vehicle.

The air then is leaked out around the bottom of the vehicle, creating what Bollum called an air cushion that pushes the craft off the ground. An airplane-type propeller provides the propulsion.

SHOOTS MAN IN URGE TO HIT HUMAN TARGET

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—A beautiful blonde typist was jailed in a murder investigation Wednesday, accused of pumping 18 bullets into the body of a gardener to satisfy an urge for a human target.

Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore quoted Rosemarie Diane Bjorkland, 18, as saying:

"I had a terrible urge to kill someone ever since I started target shooting as a hobby. I wanted a human target."

August Norry, 28, a golf course gardener, was found dead in the hills south of San Francisco on Feb. 1.

It was his custom to go there to dump grass cuttings and garden debris.

His body had been riddled by 18 bullets.

Sheriff Whitmore said Miss Bjorkland related she had met Norry twice before, as she was shooting at targets, while he emptied his gardening bags.

Whitmore again quoted the girl: "I used to go up there and point my pistol at a target pretending it was a human being. Mr. Norry on that day was my target."

"Suddenly I had the overpower-

SENATE STUDY OF BUDGET TO REQUIRE TIME

HARRISBURG (AP)—The chairman of a Senate committee examining Gov. Lawrence's record 1959-61 budget said that it will be some time before any decision is made on the administration's requests.

Sen. George B. Stevenson (R-Clinton) said the committee will wind up hearings first and then study the entire situation. Lawrence has asked for $1,970,000,000 to run the state government in the next two years.

"It's quite a complicated picture and we're trying to put it all together," Stevenson said.

Want To Know Why
The Clinton County lawmaker said Dr. Eric A. Walker, president of Pennsylvania State University, was asked to go over his budget requests and tell why the money is needed.

"Later on we'll have to evaluate. We'll take some time and look over every item carefully," Stevenson said.

He said the Appropriations Committee would have to try to find "a meeting point" between the estimates of costs to run the various governmental agencies and the estimates of revenue from the tax bills that are finally passed into law.

Penn State received $29,700,000 for the 1957-59 biennium. The school originally asked for a 48 per cent increase to $43,900,000 for the coming two-year period but the figure was cut to $34,200,000 by the administration.

Capsule Is Lost In North Pacific

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — A capsule from the satellite Discoverer II apparently was successfully ejected Tuesday over the far reaches of the north Pacific, the Air Force said today.

A terse announcement said various radioed reports are being checked to determine the capsule's probable landing area in the polar region.

This was the package the Air Force had hoped to catch, aerially, near Hawaii. But malfunction of a timing device thwarted the plan.

MEXICO GETS RID OF SPRENZ

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico gave the bum's rush Wednesday to Frank Lawrence Sprenz, a flying American bank robber on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted men.

Two immigration agents were driving the fast-traveling, fast-talking holdup artist to the U.S.-Mexican border to hand him over to American authorities.

Captured Monday as he was fishing off the Yucatan coast, Sprenz in less than 24 hours was ordered deported for entering law.

Penn State received $29,700,000 for the 1957-59 biennium. The school originally asked for a 48 per cent increase to $43,900,000 for the coming two-year period but the figure was cut to $34,200,000 by the administration.

U.S. Foreign Policy Will Remain Unchanged

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Department officials said today the resignation of Secretary Dulles would produce no change in U. S. foreign policy. Foreign diplomats were not so sure.

John Foster Dulles has charted this country's course in world affairs with a confident—if often controversial—touch for the past six years. It is inconceivable that the man who now takes over will handle all the problems in the same way as Dulles.

Yet the major lines of policy on such issues as Berlin and Germany, the Atlantic Alliance and Red China are now so basic to administration thinking and so frozen in the larger patterns of the cold war that any fundamental changes in the immediate future seem out of the question.

It is not in the basic policy but Mexico illegally. He was flown to Mexico City Tuesday afternoon and transferred to a car for the drive north.

The 29-year-old bandit is wanted for robbing a bank in Hamilton, Ohio, of $29,955; for the $1,400 holdup of an Akron, Ohio, cafe and for a series of other crimes in the United States and Canada. Ohio was his chief theater of operations.

Wreckage of a plane — one of several Sprenz used in eluding police — led to the capture.

Mexican police traced to him a Piper Pacer which cracked up landing early in April on the Gulf coast north of Veracruz.

in the application of that policy from day to day that the effect of Dulles' departure from the active control of foreign relations will be felt most quickly.

This prospect, however, is sufficient to cause uneasiness in friendly capitals. It is enough to stir hope in Moscow of a period of U. S. hesitation and fumbling, accompanied by disagreement among Allied governments.

Must Move Fast
The only man who can really act effectively to combat such weaknesses — however temporary — in the U. S. world position is Dulles' successor.

This is one of the two compelling reasons why Eisenhower, having accepted Dulles' resignation, must now move fast to appoint a new Secretary of State.

The other reason is that the new man must become fully acquainted with a wide range of complex matters in preparation for a foreign ministers meeting with the Soviet Union opening at Geneva May 11.

Herter Is Familiar

Under Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, who became acting secretary Feb. 9, is the man already most familiar with the Berlin crisis and the plans for negotiations with the U. S. S. R. But Herter has had to deal with these matters with limited and possibly temporary authority. Subject to President Eisenhower's approval or rejection, his views would be far more authoritative should the President now name him as Dulles' successor.

CAROL MIXES STUDIES WITH CAREER IN TV

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Not every successful young performer in television and the theater has heard of the eight-hour day.

Carol Lawrence was discussing this before her appearance tonight in "Too Bad About Sheila Troy" over NBC-TV on "Oldsmobile Theater" (8:30 p.m., EST).

In tonight's TV play, Miss Lawrence, who also stars in "West Side Story" on Broadway, plays a temperamental actress who formerly was a child movie star.

Rigorous Schedule

While Miss Lawrence had been singing, dancing and acting in "West Side Story" she has been maintaining a rigorous weekly schedule of study. Her subjects: singing, dancing and acting.

"You never should stop studying," he said. "Both the theater and television are changing rapidly. The theater is a different place than it was 20 years ago. And television is different than it was even two years ago. Increasingly drama displays deeper psychological insight.

"It's no longer enough to be either an actor or singer or dancer. If possible you should be able to do all three. All are related. The old days of the theater are past when you could get one role and play it for the rest of your life. Both the theater and television demand a greater diversity from a performer."

Husband Is Puppeteer
Comely, dark-haired Miss Lawrence was given time off from "West Side Story" to appear in the TV drama. Her schedule should give pause to many an office worker who feels he is burdened by the 40-hour week.

Her husband, Cosmo F. Allegretti, is a puppeteer on "Captain Kangaroo," the early morning CBS-TV program. That means he rises at 5:30 a.m. As a dutiful wife, she feels that she must too. She studies her triumvirate of talents in the mornings. Normally she has two matinees and six nightly performances in her physically exhausting role in "West Side Story."

Side Story." Then her husband calls for her at the theater and takes her home. ("Since I get up in the morning, he insists on staying up at night.")

"It's a wonderful way of life," she said. "I wouldn't change it."

HOUSE TO PROBE ALFORD'S WIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The

House Administration Committee has ordered an investigation of the election of Rep. Dale Alford of Arkansas, a Democrat.

The investigation, ordered by a 12-11 vote, will be conducted by a subcommittee headed by Rep. Robert T. Ashmore (D-SC). It was ordered on motion of Rep. Frank Thompson (D-NJ).

Alford defeated Brooks Hays, Democrat, for the House seat from the 5th Arkansas District last November. He was elected in a write-in campaign.

Alford has been a leading opponent of integration. Hays was a moderate on integration.

Rep. Omar Burleson (D-Tex), chairman of the full committee, said the committee will request federal authorities who also have investigated the Alford-Hays election to provide the committee with any documents available. Ballots and other election records have been impounded by a federal grand jury.

The United States Department of Justice was created in 1789.

Woodpecker Scalps, Salt Were Early "Money;" First Known Bank Was In Egypt

Several weeks ago Paul B. Fox, vice president of the First National Bank, addressed the Gettysburg Rotary Club on "Banking and Finance." At the time The Times published a condensation of his talk. Herewith is the interesting address in full:

Banking is something that was not invented overnight or discovered at any one particular moment. Rather, it is something that appeared gradually over the centuries in answer to certain needs. Wherever there was trade — wherever there was progress — wherever there was money in use, there was a need for banking. Today most of the banking that goes on in the world is known as commercial banking.

Commercial banking performs three major functions. First, it makes loans to reputable people for personal expenses and to business and industrial firms to expand and conduct their operations. Second, it provides the best known system for the transferring of funds from one point to another. Third, it furnishes a safe place for the keeping of funds. Other functions adjacent to these three major functions are also performed by commercial banking.

Money as we know it today was not always used as the medium of exchange. At various times and at various places such things as stone, butter, cotton, cheese, soap, furs, tobacco, rice, tea, olive oil, wheat, salt, sheep, cattle, woodpecker scalps, yes, even woodpecker scalps, were used at one time as the medium of exchange. You can imagine yourself going into the grocery store and purchasing your weekly supply of groceries and paying for them out of a pocket full of woodpecker scalps. Regardless of what the item was that was used as the medium of exchange, these things all had one thing in common — they were valuable to the person who possessed them.

Chinese Coins
China began minting bronze coins as far back as 2000 B.C. Lydia began coining gold and silver in 546 B.C. Greece learned the art of coining from Lydia and passed it on to Rome and from that time on all civilized people have been using money as the medium of exchange. Because all forms of money were valuable, there was always a need for protecting it and banking filled this need.

The first coin that was issued by this country appeared in 1787 and was known as the Fugio Cent. Today, all American coins bear the Latin inscription "E Pluribus Unum" which means "Out of Many, One." The Fugio Cent bore a different inscription. Upon it there appeared in large bold letters: "Mind Your Business."

The further back we go in history, the less information we have. The same is true in the history of banking. The earliest bank we can find record of existed in Egypt in 3900 B.C.

This bank, of all things was a cattle ranch because cattle was used as a medium of exchange at that time. People would deposit their cattle at the cattle ranch and receive receipts for them. These receipts were accepted and used in commerce and possibly this is the first paper money ever to be used.

Shansi Banks

Nothing more is known about banking until about 1000 B.C., when a system of banks began in Asia. This system was known as the Shansi Banks of China and were formed by a group of merchants who found it necessary to become money changers. They discovered that it was profitable to ship commodities, chiefly iron and salt, into the other provinces of China, and as this business expanded, they were forced to become bankers. In the seventh Century A.D. they abandoned their merchandising and made banking their chief occupation. They became the leading bankers for all of China. They continued in business until 1911, when a revolution destroyed customs and practices that were in existence over 3,000 years.

The ancient city of Babylon had a surprisingly well organized banking business in the sixth Century B.C. We even know of the name of this firm. It was called the Legibi Bank of Babylon. It was the practice for this bank to store money in earthenware jars. This firm acted as the buying agent for its clients and extended loans on crops, on signatures and on objects that were left with the bank as collateral. The bank received deposits on which it paid interest.

As early as 340 B.C., banks were in existence in Greece and Rome. We do not know exactly when checks were in use but reference is made to their use in an ancient Roman comedy, having a setting in 163 B.C. This comedy makes mention of the fact that money was deposited and withdrawn by check.

Began in Temples

In Babylon, Greece and Rome, the banking business began in the temples. It was only natural then that the first bankers were the priests and priestesses. As the banking grew into an established business, the temples remained the home of banking activity. It was the custom in Greece and Rome for the money changers to sit upon benches in the temples for the purpose of conducting their business. We get the word bank from the Latin bancus, which means bench. Also the bankrupt, in origin which means broken bench, goes back to the city of Florence where it was the practice to smash the bankrupt's bench to indicate that he was insolvent and no longer capable of conducting business.

The fall of Rome introduced the Dark Ages. It was during this period in history that trade dwindled to practically nothing and banking dwindled also. It was the custom for people to conceal their wealth in specially constructed furniture.

There is an interesting story about Richard III of England, who, you will recall, was the monarch who went raging about the battlefield crying, "A horse, a horse, my kingdom for a horse." Richard III died on the battlefield and it was not until approximately 100 years later that a fortune in gold was found in a secret compartment in the bottom of one of the drawers of a military chest that he carried with him to the inn where he stayed during the night before the battle.

Trade Revival

The end of the Middle Ages brought about the revival of trade and this developed first in Italy due to its geographical location. It was during the Crusades that Venice and Genoa supplied transportation for the crusading armies and always at a handsome profit. It was only natural then that the first banks established after the Dark Ages were in these cities.

The Bank of Venice, which is recognized as the forerunner of modern banks, was established in 1171, primarily to help finance a war. The public was asked to lend money to the government quite similar to the way people are asked to lend money to the government today through the medium of the purchasing of government bonds. This bank remained in business until 1797 when it was ruined by the invasion of Napoleon. The Bank of Genoa was founded in 1320. The Bank of Amsterdam was founded about 300 years later. The Bank of England was established in 1694 while the Bank of France was established in 1716.

Modern deposit banking began with the Bank of England. However, before it was chartered, the principles of deposit banking were discovered by the London goldsmiths with whom English merchants left their money for safekeeping. The goldsmiths issued receipts for these deposits and these receipts were accepted in commerce and served as a form of paper money. The goldsmiths found that it was safe to retain only a small reserve of the funds deposited with them for safekeeping and could lend the rest of the money to other merchants. The goldsmiths discovered that the occasion never appeared where all of the depositors would ask for all of their money at the same time.

Model For Banks

The Bank of England took advantage of these practices and in addition issued its own bank notes. The Bank of England served as the model for modern banks.

The first bank in this country was formed during the Revolutionary War when conditions were so bad that Washington feared mutiny among his troops. A group of patriotic Pennsylvanians formed a bank, utilizing their personal funds which furnished three million rations and three hogsheads of rum for Washington's troops. The activities of this group were sparked by Robert Morris and Haym Solomon. With the end of the war, the activities of this bank were terminated and Congress unanimously adopted a citation of gratitude for its activities.

After the War of Independence, a new nation was born and there was a need for a stable and permanent banking system. Robert Morris, with the aid of Alexander Hamilton's support, persuaded Congress to approve plans for the establishment of the Bank of North America which was founded in Philadelphia in 1781. This bank continued in operation until 1923 when it changed its title by merging and, incidentally, it is still an active part of The First Pennsylvania Co. for Banking and Trust.

Tied To History

American history and American banking were closely intertwined from that point on. Whenever a crisis arose, banking came to the rescue. The crisis during the War of 1812 was answered by the Girard Bank of Philadelphia, which did much to finance it. The Mexican War was financed by Jay Cooke, a Pennsylvanian, who succeeded in floating $50 million in government loans. The Civil War presented another severe financial crisis and again Jay Cooke helped solve the money problems for the Union. He did this job so well that he became known as the man who financed the Civil War. Cooke also supplied the groundwork for the National Banking Act of 1863, which helped put banking on a sounder basis.

The first bank chartered under the National Banking Act of 1863 was First National Bank of Philadelphia which still holds the original charter issued in 1863. This bank issued the first national bank note that was issued in the United States.

It is not difficult to understand why Pennsylvania has been called the cradle of American banking. As a matter of fact, the first mutual savings bank established in this country was established in Philadelphia in 1816, and it was called The Philadelphia Savings Fund Society. This organization is in operation today. The first trust company was also established in Philadelphia and was known as The Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities and remains as an active part of The First Pennsylvania Co. for Banking and Trust.

New Problems Arise

The National Banking Act brought about a great improvement in banking over what existed before but it was far from perfect. The money panic of 1907 led to the creation of the Federal Reserve System in 1913. The Federal Reserve System brings us up to date in American banking history. It serves as the foundation of American Banking. What is this Federal Reserve System? It is a system designed to improve banking conditions in this country by making banking more flexible and capable of serving the public. If we discuss briefly how this system works, we will have the answer to our question. Approximately 90 per cent of the business transactions in our country today are made by check. This means that approximately 90 per cent of the money used to buy things throughout the United States is handled by banks.

Banks accept deposits and give deposit credits which are used by the public through the medium of checks. These checks are circulated all over the country. It is necessary that a satisfactory system for the collection of these checks be available for the successful continuation of business. The Federal Reserve System acts as the collecting agency for checks.

Short Of Cash

Before the Federal Reserve System was established, there were times when depositors in a certain location wanted to use more money than the banks might have on hand. Seasons and conditions and different localities changed the money demand and sometimes this change occurred overnight. Some banks were prepared to meet this demand while others were not. This condition can be likened unto a series of ponds in a meadow without a connecting stream. At times, some of the ponds having an excess supply of water while others are going thirsty and drying up. The Federal Reserve System was designed to alleviate this condition. It was to be the connecting stream whereby the reserves of one community could flow to another community enabling the latter to meet the money demands of that area. The Federal Reserve System through the medium of the twelve Federal Reserve Banks creates a vast reserve for the whole nation.

All national banks are required to be members of the Federal Reserve System. They are required to purchase stock according to their capital structure. State chartered banks may join the Federal Reserve System also by purchasing stock. All members are required to carry a cash reserve account with the Federal Reserve Bank of their particular district. Central Reserve City Banks, that is banks within the limits of a city in which a Federal Reserve Bank is located, are required to maintain, as a reserve,

5 per cent of their total time deposit liability and 16½ per cent of their total demand deposit liability. Other banks are required to carry 5 per cent of their time deposit liability and 11 per cent of their demand deposit liability. These reserves are calculated daily and a report must be filed with the Federal Reserve Bank every 15 days. The law allows the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System to change the percentage of reserve requirements. This gives the Federal Reserve System control of bank credit. If the board of governors is of the opinion that bank credit is expanding too rapidly, the reserve requirements would be raised. Likewise, if it was the opinion that bank credit should be stimulated, the reserve requirements would be lowered.

Loans To Banks

The Federal Reserve Bank makes loans to its member banks. The member bank may take commercial paper, usually promissory notes, given by responsible firms and sell it to the Federal Reserve Bank. This is known as rediscounting. A member bank can also secure a loan from the Federal Reserve Bank by pledging collateral for the loan. The type of collateral recognized for this purpose is usually government bonds.

As previously stated, in the ye before the Federal Reserve System, no loanable funds were available to a bank when it was in need of funds. The Federal Reserve System creates a huge pool of reserves which is available to the entire nation. Approximately 80 per cent of the currency in circulation today is Federal Reserve Notes. These are in denominations from $5 to $10,000. The Federal Reserve Bank issuing these notes must maintain at all times a 100 per cent coverage for the notes in circulation. Forty per cent of this coverage must be in gold certificates and the balance may be in commercial paper, government bonds, or other gold certificates.

Currency dealings between the member banks and the Federal Reserve Bank are quite similar to any currency dealing between an individual and his own bank. Whenever a member bank needs currency, the procedure followed is to advise the Federal Reserve Bank of the amount of currency to be delivered and usually the procedure is to have the Federal Reserve Bank charge the member bank's reserve account with the Federal Reserve Bank.

Prior to a couple of years ago, the Postal Department was used as the agent for the transfer of currency between the Federal Reserve Bank and the member bank. This system was replaced by the armored car delivery system. On predesignated dates, the Federal Reserve Bank delivers currency by armored car service to its member banks. On other dates, the armored car picks up excess currency in the hands of the member banks and returns it to the Federal Reserve Bank.

The member bank's liability for currency returned to the Federal Reserve Bank ceases upon the execution of a receipt by the armored car attendant who signs such a receipt in the member bank's vault. Likewise, the member bank's liability for currency received from the Federal Reserve Bank does not commence until it is actually delivered in the member bank's vault.

The transfer of money by wire is a fast convenient service that is rendered by the Federal Reserve Bank. Another interesting function of the Federal Reserve Bank is the facilities available for the transfer of securities by wire.

Let us assume that an individual desires to deliver $100,000 par value of U. S. Treasury coupon bonds in another part of the country. We'll assume that the seller lives in the Philadelphia District and that the purchaser lives in the Atlanta, Ga., District. The seller delivers the bonds to his bank who in turn delivers the bonds to the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia. Here the certificates are cancelled and the denominations cancelled, sent by wire to the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Ga. The Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta then issues new certificates in the same denominations as those cancelled and advises the purchaser's bank that the physical securities are available for delivery. This procedure requires the time of approximately one to one and a half hours. Thus, securities physically located in Philadelphia can be transferred to Atlanta, Ga., in this short period of time.

The various Federal Reserve Banks balance their accounts with one another through the settlement fund in Washington, D. C.

The few functions I have discussed should give you somewhat of the picture of the immense value of the Federal Reserve System to banks, to business, to you and me, the people of America.

EYE SHADOW TECHNIQUE AID TO EYES

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Eyeshadow is one of the "accepted" cosmetics in this day. Time was when it was considered a blight on the pretty face, unless one was a model, show girl or actress, using it for effect before studio and footlights.

The teen-age girl is likely to find the use of eyeshadow a bit of a problem. It may enhance her eyes, but if she smears it on, the effect will be disastrous. It is the difference between achieving a bright young-eyed look and one that looks like it was decorated for a masquerade party.

How should it be applied?

The girl who has never used eyeshadow may find it easier to experiment. She could start with a dab and work up from there. The idea is to put a small amount of the eyeshadow on the lid just above the pupil of the eye, and then blend it out toward the temple. Newer eyeshadow sticks make the technique easier than formerly. The sticks are thin, resembling lipsticks, and the consistency is smooth. You make a thin line along the upper lid with the stick and if you want it to appear lighter, smooth it out with your finger. Iridescent sticks that may give a girl evening eyes contain small flecks of sparkling material. Blue-eyed types may wear blue, teal or green.

Takes Her Pick

A girl with hazel or light brown eyes may take her pick of eyeshadows. She may look especially striking with blue eyeshadow if she has blonde hair, although green eyeshadow seems to have been made for the brown-eyed girl. Green eyes may choose the green shadow also, and the silver smoke shades may appeal to the girl who wants to emphasize her eyes for special occasions.

The all-American girl look today is a pale look all the way from chin to hairline with the eyes defined with an eyeliner and eyeshadow. The eyebrows are natural, emphasized with eyebrow pencil. It is the "no-lipstick" look that has put so much emphasis on the eyes, one of the most important features of a woman.

Film patrol movies of the controversial 1958 Laurel International race were used in a series of lectures sponsored by the Australian Jockey Club in Sydney.

News From Nearby Counties

YORK COUNTY

Hanover Borough Manager Robert H. McGregor said his office has received communications from seven local groups endorsing fluoridation of the town's water supply since a normal resolution to this effect was introduced at a borough council meeting two months ago. Council is expected to take action on the question at its meeting tonight.

McGregor said that 32 of 33 senior high school teachers voted recently for fluoridation and that Dr. Charles E. Davis, superintendent of schools, endorses the measure.

The seven organizations endorsing fluoridation in resolutions McGregor received are: Gamma Rho chapter; Beta Sigma Phi sorority; MRS Club of the YWCA; High St., Penn St.; Hanover St. and Walnut St. PTA's, and the Hanover Dental Society.

The five groups known to have passed resolutions favoring fluoridation are: Hanover Board of Health, Hanover Junior High PTA, Clearview Elementary PTA, Hanover Joint PTA Council, and Xi Psi Exemplar chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, McGregor said.

The borough manager said mail against the measure consisted of letters from Dr. A. L. Martin, St. Vincent's Parochial School PTA, Col. Richard McAllister chapter, DAR, and one anonymous communication.

WASHINGTON COUNTY

Winter damage to grain and hay crops in Washington County has been such that losses are expected to run into thousands of dollars. Some farmers are plowing damaged wheat fields to plant them to other crops. Peach buds are believed to have survived a "close call" Monday night when temperatures fell to 28 degrees.

Washington County Commissioners have begun work of setting up a county economic development commission, authorized by recent legislation. The commission will have the job of "selling the county" to new industry and to tourists.

FRANKLIN COUNTY

Waynesboro Red Cross officials plan a modest "follow-up" drive to augment the funds received to date in the campaign for $10,000 to meet budget requirements of the Waynesboro chapter. A total of $8,024 has been given in the campaign to date.

An 8-year-old boy Monday admitted to Chambersburg police that he kindled a fire in the basement of the Cedar St. Mennonite Church during the morning worship period on Sunday morning so he could see the fire engines rush to the scene.

Although smoke from the fire filled the church sanctuary and forced the congregation to leave, the resulting damage was not serious.

Donald Royer, 50, Waynesboro R. 1, has been charged by state police with the hit-run injuring

RIPPER BILL ON SENATE FLOOR

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Senate committee has approved a bill that would abolish the State Athletic Commission and transfer its duties to a deputy Commonwealth secretary.

The measure was moved into position Tuesday for floor action. The deputy secretary would act as a one-man athletic commission under provisions of the bill, replacing the present three-member commission.

Sen. Z. H. Confair (R-Lycoming) sponsor of the legislation, contended the operations of the commission have had the effect of stifling boxing in Pennsylvania.

The measure also would dissolve the investigating staff of the present commission and authorize the athletic commissioner to have any needed investigations made by the state police.

of two young people as they walked along the side of the road in Quincy.

Royer's car had been spotted by Waynesboro police soon after the accident April 4. Miss Molly Geesaman, 18, Quincy, and Donald Gossert, 17, Waynesboro R. 1, had been bowled over by a car which failed to stop.

Miss Geesaman suffered deep head cuts and Gossert was cut on the leg. Both were taken to the Waynesboro Hospital.

Royer was arrested Saturday.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY
An explosion and fire Tuesday night left the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller, Lower Allen Twp., in ruins. A neighbor, Harold Cook, suffered minor burns of the face and head when the blast blew him back upstairs from the furnace room where he had gone to investigate leaking gas.

Miller, his wife, and their three children, Cheryl Ann, 3, Dennis Lee, 7, and Clyde Jr., 9, as well as Mrs. Miller's 4-month-old niece, Louanne Renn Hazzard, escaped uninjured.

Miller told Lower Allen Fire Chief Glenn Hawbecker a workman digging a sewer trench in front of the house struck the gas line.

Flames which followed the explosion burned the contents of the one-story dwelling. Miller estimated damage at $13,000.

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Motor traffic stopped almost completely for one hour in Norway at noon Wednesday in protest against new taxes on autos.

Huge crowds in Oslo filled the main street outside the Parliament building, blocking the few official cars which tried to move. Inside Parliament representatives of major motoring organizations delivered a protest against the new taxes.

The government has imposed a 10-25 per cent extra sales tax on all cars, and new taxes on gas and diesel powered buses and trucks are proposed for later this year.

Marty Marion, co-owner of the Houston team in the American Assn., also is in the real estate, printing and day camp business in St. Louis.

Dulles Hoped To Regain Health To Continue As U.S. Secretary Of State

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles' decision to resign was a bitter acknowledgment for a man whose spectacular career has been marked by almost incredible tirelessness.

For one thing, Dulles has traveled about the world more than any other secretary.

Dulles, who is 71, had clung for weeks to the hope that he could make it to the Geneva meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers.

Couldn't Come Back

But this time he was not to spring back, as he had before—for example, when he first was stricken with cancer in 1956.

Dulles re-entered Walter Reed Army Hospital here last Sunday, cutting short a Florida rest he had taken in an effort to build up his failing strength.

Dulles had gone to the hospital Feb. 10 for a hernia operation. Recurrence of cancer was then discovered. But, whereas the doctors had taken out a piece of his large intestine in 1956, there was no effort this time to cure by surgery.

Radiation Treatments

Massive radiation treatments were tried, and Dulles was reported to have stood these well. His strength always has been much greater than most men's, and hope was held that he would get back on the job.

When Dulles came back from Florida, there was no question but that he had deteriorated badly. Newsmen who had seen him fairly constantly figured he had lost 15 to 20 pounds of his normal 185. His face looked wasted; his clothes hung loosely.

Dulles himself said: "I feel pretty good."

Many Friends, Critics

But then Tuesday came the report indicating the cancer may have spread.

Throughout Dulles' illness, Democrats as well as Republicans were pulling for him. In fact, he had many Democratic friends, some of them dated back to the time when he worked with Cordell Hull, who was President Franklin D. Roosevelt's secretary of state.

Dulles had many critics, too, in the political-diplomatic field. Some accused him of an arrogant carelessness and said he had casually brought the United States to the brink of war time after time. "Brinkmanship" became a word of scorn.

"Wise, Courageous"

His supporters have been as strong in the other direction. Eisenhower, for an important example, once called him "one of the wisest, most courageous and most dedicated men" ever to serve as head of the State Department. Other admirers agreed he had preserved peace.

Antagonism toward Dulles was often apparent in Allied capitals, where the charge came frequently that he was too eager to provoke the Soviet Union.

The Communist Soviet Union never let up on its criticism. It called Dulles a warmonger, with all conceivable adjectives.

Prepared For Position

Dulles became secretary of state on Jan. 21, 1953. He had been prepared for the position through most of his adult life and had been active in foreign affairs for years.

Dulles became a figure on the world stage toward the end of World War II when he was serving as foreign affairs adviser to the Republican presidential candidate, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Dulles relaxed mainly by flying to his private duck island retreat in Lake Ontario. Whenever the opportunity arose, he would fly by special Air Force plane to Syracuse and then board a small amphibian plane which would land in the water near the isolated island.

With his wife, Dulles would then relax in a rustic cabin which had no electricity or running water. He rigged a device whereby he could scoop up the lake water he needed for personal and cooking uses.

While there, he has told friends, he liked to relax by chopping wood and helping Mrs. Dulles with household chores, including washing dishes and polishing copper pots and pans.

Gunshot Death Is Called A Murder

MAPLE SHADE, N.J. (AP) — Clinton Zeller, Burlington County chief of detectives, has called the gunshot death of Frank Egner a murder.

But state police Lt. Harry Armano, who is working on the case with county officials, said: "We are not calling it murder yet."

Egner, 41-year-old die-maker, left his home Monday night in response to a telephone call and told his wife, Alice, 35, "I'll be back in an hour."

Two hours later Egner was found dead in his car, his body slumped over the wheel, two .22 caliber bullets in the back of his head.

U. S. SCIENTIFIC MISSION OPENS IN ARCTIC SEA

By ALAN CLINE

ALPHA TWO, Arctic Ocean (AP)—Ice Skate, a cold weather scientific mission with strong military overtones, was launched Tuesday on this tiny block of ice in the barren arctic.

Two C124 four-engine Globemaster planes parachuted 22 tons of equipment, food and shelter to a small contingent of Air Force men and Navy scientists from California who will study meteorology, hydrology, oceanography and any animal and fish life there is.

The three-mile by two-mile island is along the arctic route traveled by the nuclear submarines Nautilus and Skate.

Russia Has Two

Soviets have two similar stations and are landing a third within a 100 miles of Alpha Two, successor to Alpha One, an ice island which broke up last November and had to be evacuated.

Maj. Harry M. Brittenham of Houston, Tex., is the Ice Skate project officer.

Alpha Two is 233 miles north of Point Barrow and about 900 miles south of the North Pole.

Alpha One, which was operated in conjunction with the International Geophysical Year, broke up after being occupied for 20 months.

One Off Newfoundland

The Air Force has another one, T-3, operating off Newfoundland. Four men went in from Point Barrow Monday to select the site. They needed ice deep enough to make a 5,000-foot runway capable of holding C124s, each weighing 90 tons fully loaded.

The four were Capt. James F. Smith of Lawton, Okla.; Dr. Max Brewer of Palo Alto, Calif., who heads the Navy's Arctic Research Center; and two bush pilots, Robert Fischer and Bob Main, from Fairbanks, Alaska.

HOSPITAL VISITORS

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. William Barfield went to a hospital Tuesday afternoon to visit Mrs. Barfield's parents who were hurt in a weekend auto accident.

The Barfields were hurriedly summoned to the hospital emergency room. A boy had been brought in, critically hurt after running into the side of an auto. He died.

The boy was the Barfields' son, Timothy.

ADMIRAL SAYS SPACE PLANS "BECLOUDED"

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice Adm. John T. Hayward Wednesday sharply criticized the nation's space organization as beclouded and likely to run into serious delays.

Hayward, assistant chief of naval operations, told a Senate space subcommittee that "a sizable cut-back in funds" may delay important military space programs.

Presenting what he termed "the naval view of space organization," the grim-faced admiral said the dozen or more agencies and commissions are superior to the Navy in the space field organizational setup.

He noted that eight space agencies had been set up since the first Russian Sputnik satellite and added:

"Crack The Whip"

"To say that the Navy has been able to accept all of the changes in governmental organization without breaking step would not be true."

Hayward compared the many agencies of the national space effort to "the children's game of 'crack the whip.'"

"Small movements at the head of the chain make it most difficult for the man at the end to keep on his feet, and I fear that the military services are uncomfortably close to the end of the U.S. space chain," he said.

Previously Army, Air Force and other governmental witnesses had generally defended the existing national space programs, with separate civilian and military agencies acting under direction of the President and a National Space Council.

USES TONGUE TO TYPE WHEN FINGERS FAIL

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Georgia Lee (Jo) Sherrill, paralyzed by polio four years ago, lies in an iron lung at home unable even to move her head from side to side.

Yet the 23-year-old former secretary can type accurately.

The minor miracle is achieved by use of her tongue.

The "tongue-typewriter" was put together by employees of three companies: General Electric, International Business Machines and Southern Bell Telephone.

IBM donated an electric typewriter which requires a much lighter touch than a standard machine — plus a device which operates it by remote control.

Link Needed

GE gave the green light to model maker Wesley S. Pattison to devise a link between Miss Sherrill's tongue and the typewriter.

Southern Bell set up Miss Sherrill's special apparatus so it would operate on low voltage direct current while the typewriter operates on standard house current.

Pattison's gadget is the heart of the system. It enables Miss Sherrill to wiggle the end of a pointer contained in a slot labelled with the desired letter, closing an electrical circuit to operate the key. She uses a miniature keyboard with 48 characters in a straight line.

"This is unique because nothing is held in Miss Sherrill's mouth," Pattison said. "The device is used whenever she wants to use her tongue to type."

Sends Many Letters

Despite her affliction Miss Sherrill has sent many letters of encouragement to other polio patients throughout the country. No longer does she have to dictate the letters.

It took Pattison four months to develop his cog in the system.

"Time and again I came up against a wall," he said. "Then I prayed and somehow the next answer came."

He said Miss Sherrill's "amazing spirit overwhelmed those who helped her."

Miss Sherrill's first typewritten letter was to Pattison. It began:

"I wish I could find the words to express my appreciation. . ."

UPSET ODDS WITH SECOND SET OF QUADS

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Mrs. Richard Shaia and Mrs. Edward Englehart both live here in Richmond, both are 34, and both have mothered quadruplets.

Three years ago when Mrs. Shaia gave birth to four girls, statisticians said quads were not expected in metropolitan Richmond again for another 65 years.

But Mrs. Englehart last October demolished the odds. She presented her husband with two boys and two girls.

As they approach their third birthday, the Shaia quads "are very healthy," says their mother, wife of a local restaurant owner. Mary Louise, Mary Loretta, Mary Celeste and Mary Virginia get no special attention.

Busy Household

Life about the five-bedroom Shaia home is hectic. The parents keep things as close to normal as possible with nine children under foot. They range up to 12 years of age.

The quads are kept close to home. The Shaia have side-stepped the limelight from the very beginning. Their task has been difficult. It was known even before Mrs. Shaia gave birth that quads—and an outside chance of quintuplets—were expected.

On the other hand, Mrs. Englehart—whose husband is a city sanitation worker—looked for twins. Just before delivery the possibility of triplets was mentioned. That proved to be an understatement.

Laura Englehart wept when she learned she finally had two boys among her 19 children, three by a previous marriage. The oldest is 10 years.

Hardship

For the Engleharths, quadruplets proved to be a hardship. The father found a multitude of demands being made on his $60-a-week salary as a sweeper operator. What's more, the home of Englehart's father, where the family lived, was without an indoor toilet or running water.

Assorted gifts helped. They included furniture, layettes, free diaper service for a month when the quads left the hospital, two cases of baby food a month for a year, and the starting formula for the babies provided free.

A four-bedroom duplex apartment at a modest rental was found for the Engleharths in a development on Richmond's south side.

Neighbors Help Out

A civic club in suburban Sandston, where the family used to live, has collected $3,500 toward the purchase of a plot of land and construction of a home for the Engleharths.

In between afternoon feedings,

Mrs. Englehart told a reporter all this help was greatly appreciated. "We're not destitute," she said, "but we have a tough struggle from payday to payday."

The quads consume formula enough for six babies. Edward Jr., "just a little red knot" at birth with his 2 pounds, 11 ounces, tipped the scales at more than 9 pounds by mid-January. No longer was he the smallest of the four. The others are Edwin, Edna and Evelyn.

A city nurse looks in on the quads once a week, and the physician who delivered them, says Mrs. Englehart, "couldn't be any more interested than if they were his own children."

On March 14, 1929, aircraft from the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla., completed 113 mercy flights in a 24-hour period, flying food, clothing and medical supplies to towns in Southern Alabama and Western Florida suffering badly from floods.

sauce, on either white, whole wheat, rye or pumpernickel. (There are 49 other seafood sandwiches to choose from.)

Or perhaps his taste runs to one of the 60 fresh meat or poultry sandwiches on the menu — for instance, beef tartar steak on rye, with anchovies, chopped onions, cold bearnaise sauce and raw egg. He might prefer a ham and Camembert cheese sandwich, with raw egg and chives, from a group of 36 different smoked and cured meat combinations. It's possible, too, that he might prefer lighter food, in which case he could order from one of 30 egg and salad sandwiches, or from the tempting list of 24 domestic and imported cheese sandwiches on the restaurant's menu.

Some people think that advertising represents needless economic waste. Anyone who feels this way would do well to ponder an editorial observation in a recent issue of The Portland Oregon Journal:

"Without advertisements, the cost of a single copy of a newspaper would be so high nobody could afford to buy it. And without advertising, the public would be denied the tremendous variety of entertainment, news and cultural programs on radio and television. It is true that the public pays for the advertising through the price of the article sold, but the mass production which advertising makes possible reduces the unit price far below what it would be without this stimulus, and advertising cost per unit is often inconsequential. For instance, advertising expenditure on a loaf of bread is less than the cost of the wrapper."

More and more come the clarion calls to "Save Gettysburg" and they come from the editorial writers of the U.S.A.

The most recent is the Columbus (Ohio) Evening Dispatch which, in an editorial in its April 11 edition, warns as follows:

Unless the U.S. Senate restores the request of the National Park Service for $750,000 for fiscal 1960 to preserve portions of the Gettysburg battlefield threatened by commercialization, one of the great focal points of American history and sentiment interest will be irrevocably damaged if not destroyed.

The House of Representatives, piously practicing an "economy" for which it has shown no great regard in other areas of federal finance, has cut from the NPS appropriations bill every penny designated for acquisition of Civil War battlefield sites next year.

Under consideration is a plan to reproduce the Battle of Gettysburg four years from now, as a patriotic spectacle of profound historic interest, on the 100th anniversary of the engagement.

Unless the NPS gets the additional 691 acres it needs to preserve the approximate battle area intact (it now owns 2,762 acres) spectators of the re-staged conflict may see Pickett's men charging around hot dog and ice cream stands.

Some of the first-day's fighting may lose some of its authenticity by being carried out on the front lawns of a new ranch house subdivision.

Total cost of the land needed, and scheduled for acquisition over a three-year period by NPS—if it can pry the money loose from a suddenly tight-fisted Congress—is $2.4 million.

This isn't exactly small change, even in these days of huge federal budgets and extravagant spending. But it is little indeed when it represents the preservation or loss of what is perhaps the most meaningful of all the nation's historic shrines.

The Civil War is recognized as the most significant single event in American annals, a genuine great divide in human history. The Battle of Gettysburg decided that war. It would be unthinkable to go as far as the nation already has gone to commemorate this mighty event for posterity without going the full way to keep it intact.

Much of the terrain the NPS wants to acquire is now being farmed under lease, and the same is true of a goodly part of the battlefield it now owns, including the famous Peach Orchard, thus duplicating its appearance as it was in July, 1863. The new acreage would be put to productive use in the same manner.

Present owners of the land still needed to preserve the whole battlefield, however, say they can't afford to pass up attractive offers from all sorts of commercial enterprises and real estate interests.

Apparently the only way to protect the "hallowed ground" of Lincoln's immortal address from desecration by the incongruous presence of motels, miniature golf courses, taverns, candy shops and an amusement park, is to add the additional 691 acres to the NPS holdings.

It is greatly to be hoped that the Senate may reverse the House's almost scandalously short-sighted and insensitive action.
